Opening Address

Senator Michael R. Gibbons, President Pro Tem

First Regular Session, 93rd General Assembly

January 5, 2005

Lt. Gov. Maxwell, Lt. Gov-Elect Kinder, Judge Limbaugh, Judge Snyder, members of the Missouri Senate, friends, family and fellow Missourians:

The people of Missouri stand at the threshold of a time of great opportunity. It will be up to us to lay the foundation for this exciting future and make our state government work for the people to improve the lives we all live in this great state.

During the elections and afterward, a great deal has been said about how divided we are, some saying that there are two Americas, others that deep divisions will prevent us from moving forward. In Missouri's history, we know about deep divisions. As a border state during the Civil War, brothers took up arms against each other, and the violence and bloodshed in Missouri was great.

Thankfully, today the things that separate us are far less extreme, and it would do us well to recall what Abraham Lincoln reminded us about creating divisions - that a "House divided against itself cannot stand." Moreover, the state seal of our great state echoes this theme: "United We Stand - Divided We Fall." We must be united in our desire to make sure that the people of Missouri have jobs and an opportunity to succeed; that our children have good schools and get a great education; that we have access to quality healthcare; that our roads are safe and our transportation system strong; that our tax system is fair and generates the money necessary to fund critical functions in a way that is simple and without a great burden; that waste, fraud and abuse in Medicaid is eliminated.

There will be disagreement about how to achieve these objectives, and these differences should be debated vigorously, amendments offered and votes cast so that we can do the job of expressing the will of the people and take action to improve the lives of Missourians.

We have seen a massive change in Jefferson City. In 1992, when a number of us were first elected to the House of Representatives, Gov. Carnahan was elected after 12 years of Republican governors. He brought with him a huge Democratic majority in the House and Senate.

This year's election was the exact opposite - Gov-elect Blunt was elected after 12 years of Democratic governors and brought with him huge majorities in both chambers of the General Assembly.

Moreover, the political landscape has changed dramatically in the last 4 years. Republicans have grown from a minority of 16 members in the Senate in 2000, to a majority of 23 today. This majority expanded to include the House Republicans in 2002 as they gained their first majority in decades, and now we have a republican governor. This is the first time in 84 years that Republicans have been in this position, and only the fourth time in Missouri history.

The other great change has been term limits which the people adopted in 1992. The last of the long serving members of the Senate finished their service in 2004 where the longest serving members had been in the legislature for 42 years and had served in the Senate for almost three decades. Today, the longest serving members in the Senate have been here 6 years, and both of them will be leaving soon.

The Senator from Phelps will be leaving to become the next Treasurer of the State of Missouri. The Senator from Jefferson will be leaving to take over as City Administrator for the City of Festus. They join our friend and next Lt. Governor of Missouri, Peter Kinder, in continuing the tradition of leadership for Missouri coming from the ranks of the Senate.

It is into this body of leaders that we welcome our 11 new members. You are now part of a strong tradition of leadership and I challenge you, in this time of great change, to honor this tradition by helping us lead so that the people of our state can lead better lives.

With all of this change, we have the opportunity to shape how this Senate will work. We have the opportunity to work together to find solutions and get results for the people. The Senate is the place for deliberate debate, to explore the issues, and respect every Senator's right to be heard and to impact legislation.

But, this is not the place for delay for the sake of delay, or obstruction for the sake of obstruction. The people spoke in November, and now it's time to get something done. There will be no tyranny by this Majority, nor can there be a tyranny by the Minority if we are to do the peoples' work and find solutions to the issues facing our State.

We all have run for this office with the hope and desire to make things better for the people of Missouri, and I applaud the Senator from the 5th, our Senate Minority Leader, for her leadership and interest in restoring civility to the Senate and for working hard to find solutions. She has said that it is now our "opportunity to make things work for the state." And that is what we are ready to do. The Senator from the 5th and I are committed to putting the people of Missouri before politics, and we urge you all to join us.

The voters on November 2nd sent a clear message - We want change. We want action. We want results. We want an end to the gridlock between the governor and the General Assembly. Voters, your message has been heard.

This year, we will pass tort reform in Missouri and see it signed into law. High malpractice premiums have caused doctors to leave the practice of medicine or move to another state. This loss of access to quality health care must stop. The loose provisions on venue have allowed lawyers great success in "shopping" for a place to file their lawsuits like the City of St. Louis where the chance of winning is greater and the money awarded larger. This litigation lottery must end. The failure to solve these issues reduces access to quality healthcare and increases its cost, so that we pay more for less care. Furthermore, our civil justice system makes it less likely that businesses will locate or expand here, costing us jobs and opportunities. This must change.

The issue is about balance. The person who is hurt should have their day in court, while the person who is sued should have a fair opportunity to defend themselves.

Doing so will mean a better way of life for all Missourians. We must succeed.

Workers compensation reform is another issue likely to have early action. Simply put, when an employee is hurt, and the injury is caused by their work, he or she should be protected and compensated for their loss, but when work is not the cause of the injury, the employer should be protected from these claims and the higher premiums they cause. When this system is in balance, it's good for the workers and the employers. When it is out of balance in favor of the claimants, it undermines the benefits, increases costs, makes our state less competitive and the people lose out on jobs and opportunities. If it gets out of balance in favor of business, it can make the workplace less safe. We must strike the right balance.

School funding is an issue that we have not yet addressed. It must be tackled. It will be difficult. The school funding formula that distributes state tax dollars to elementary and secondary schools is broken. A lawsuit has been filed challenging the current law, but it is not the role of the courts to establish how this money should be distributed, rather, it is ours - the Legislature's. School funding is a great challenge because each area, each district, each school, and even each student, has different needs and desires, which can turn this issue into the legislative equivalent of a food fight. It will be up to us, the Missouri Senate to lead the way on this complicated issue, which affects the education our children receive, the cost paid by the taxpayers, the strength of our state's economy and our future. We must find the right balance so that all of our children, whether they are from rural, suburban, or urban areas; from small or large districts; have an equal opportunity for a great education.

And while our state's economy is improving, we still have many budget challenges ahead. Governor-elect Blunt has said that his administration will look at change and efficiency to make sure we are good stewards of the taxpayers money and we spend it effectively for the benefit of the people. We look forward to working with this administration in crafting a balanced budget that protects the taxpayers while providing adequate funding for critical functions of government. The appropriations process sets the priorities for the coming year and, in this effort, we must succeed.

Many other issues will come before us this year. The work will be difficult. The hours long. We all have family and friends that have made substantial sacrifices in order for us to serve. Let's recognize them now.

I also want to thank the voters of the 15th Senatorial District for returning me to the Missouri Senate, and I thank you, my colleagues in the Senate, for electing me to serve as your President Pro Tem. I am honored and humbled by your confidence as we enter these exciting and historic times.

My goal for the Missouri Senate, working together with the House and Governor, is to lead our citizens to their best days ever. My door will always be open to you, as we strive in this chamber to do what is right for the people of Missouri.

I also want to say a quick thank you to Judge Snyder. I grew up around the corner from him and he was our State Representative. More importantly, he has been a great mentor, a role model, and a friend. When I was first elected to Kirkwood City Council, he swore me in in 1986, and I am thrilled that he was able to be here today.

The first time I was ever in this magnificent Capitol was as a 10 year old on a fourth grade field trip to Jefferson City from Pitman Elementary School in Kirkwood. I remember the day very clearly. We met Governor Warren Hearnes, Secretary of State James Kirkpatrick, and visited the House and Senate. I had a great time and knew that I wanted to come back some day.

When I finally came back it was in January of 1993 as a newly elected member of the Missouri House of Representatives, in the minority party, number 160 out of 163 in seniority. I was lucky to have an office. I never thought on that day I would be standing here before you as part of an historic effort to put Missouri on the right track for the 21st century.

We are all here because we share a dream, a dream that the lives of Missourians can be better and that we can do something about that.

Earlier we recognized our friends and families with a round of applause. Better than applause, let's recognize their sacrifices, as well as the trust the voters have given to us, by working together to lay a solid foundation for the future of the people of this state. We must build a future of hope and opportunity. A future that affirms that the American Dream is alive and well in Missouri. A future no matter who you are; your color, your gender, where you begin, or how old you are; if you work hard, and relentlessly and honorably pursue your goals, in our Missouri, your dreams can come true.

So, let's work together so that every Missourian will have the opportunity to pursue their dreams with the hope of success, to improve their lives and make our state the best place in America to live, work and raise a family.

Thank you.

No floor debate shall be allowed on the motion to adopt the committee report.

The Committee shall examine bills placed on the Consent Calendar and may, by majority vote, remove any bill from the consent calendar within the time period prescribed by Rule 45, that it determines is too controversial to be treated as a consent bill.

"Let your eyes look directly forward and your gaze be straight before you. Take heed to the path of your feet and then all your ways will be sure."

Gracious God, we look into the future of this new year with many things to distract us from accomplishing what is needful and required of us. Guide and direct us this week as we celebrate this time of new beginnings, new leadership and shared responsibilities that we are called to meet. Keep us on a straight path and let us see what must be done and set our hearts and minds to do it. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

My fellow Missourians,

I am grateful for the confidence you have placed in me. I sought this office knowing that the generous and able support of my fellow citizens would help me shoulder the many grave responsibilities that accompany the honor of leading this great state.

It will be my great purpose to lead Missouri in a new direction. I promised change in our state capitol. Missourians mandated change in both the tone and the priorities of our state government. Our shared desire for a future of great opportunity and achievement for every Missourian demands that we heed their counsel. Change begins today, at this hour, in this place.

We stand in the shadow of Jefferson who believed that a society founded upon the rule of law and liberty was dependent upon public education and the diffusion of knowledge. He correctly extolled the virtues of learning when he stated that, "No other sure foundation can be devised for the preservation of freedom and happiness."

Missouri's Constitution declares that education must be our first commitment. Even if we were not legally bound, we would be morally bound to serve the children of our state and the families who have placed their confidence in us.

We must fulfill this obligation. We must transcend partisan division. We must meet Jefferson's standard for enlightened government. We can no longer drift from the vision embraced by the Founders and our Constitution.

Working with your elected representatives, I will strive to ensure that every young Missourian has the education they deserve. Their future and our own depend upon it.

In the days ahead we must and will create an entrepreneurial climate where the spirit of free enterprise will flourish and aid the creation of good family supporting jobs. We must also remember that Missouri's future rests with the creativity and genius of the people - not in government programs.

Missourians deserve a government that promises no more than it can deliver and delivers everything it promises. Taxpayers deserve a government that harnesses technology to better serve the people. It is within our capacity to provide smaller and more responsible government.

In a government such as ours we have vigorous contests to determine who should lead. The recent election was no exception. Now we inaugurate a new government on a day that transcends any one individual or any one party.

Today, we begin the important task of working together to improve the lives of all Missourians. I commit all of my strength and energy to this good cause. As differing points of view compete, I encourage all to remember Jefferson's admonition that "every difference of opinion is not a difference of principle."

The government that we inaugurate today recommits itself to our shared principles. I stand before you today mindful of our shared aspiration for a government that better serves the people. We are united in our hope for a government that is frugal and wise. We remind ourselves that the values that spring from our soil and are cultivated in our homes and places of worship should be embraced rather than scorned.

The spirit and determination of the people to chart their own destiny is the greatest power for good in human affairs. The demands of the present must stand above the political habits of the past. When necessary, the needs of this hour have right to sweep aside the barriers that prevent Missourians from reaching their full potential.

We stand first among nations because of our hopefulness, our vision, and our desire for improvement. When we speak of the American dream, the dream that we describe centers not on the glories of the past, but on the possibilities of the future.

Over the next four years, we will be bold. We will be willing to experiment. We will not fear failure. We will bear setbacks with resolve and press forward with determined innovation. We will attack problems with the deliberation that accompanies this great responsibility and with the energy necessary to build a better Missouri.

Missouri can lead America in solving many of the problems that challenge our country. Our workers are ready, eager and able to meet the tests of the global economy. Missouri's teachers are dedicated to preparing our young people for a future of opportunity.

We are fortunate to have many valuable resources at our disposal, but our greatest resource has been, is, and always will be our people. In the measure that state government has fallen short, it has done so by setting itself apart from, and above, the wisdom, common sense, and values of the people. Government is not the author of progress, nor the first source of wisdom, nor the Creator of our freedom, nor the wellspring of the values of faith, family and freedom that make America the greatest nation on earth. Government is the people's tool. It should be the servant, not the master.

A statue on the north side of our beautiful Capitol commemorates the signing of the Louisiana Purchase. On this side, we are under the gaze of our third President whose vision secured the new territory and defined its character. From that territory, pioneers carved a state destined for greatness. Their optimism, hope and faith endure. We are the heirs of their labor. Let us also remember that we are guardians of their legacy.

I took the oath with my hand upon two Bibles. One is the Book I turn to each day. It will remind me of the solemn pledge I have made before God and my fellow citizens. The other is a Bible that Melanie and I will give to our son upon his birth. It will remind me that what we do today, tomorrow and across the next four years will help define the future opportunities of every Missouri child.

May God grant that in the days of prosperity and contentment, He will fill our hearts with praise and that in moments of trial, we will remember to seek His aid.

Together, we will chart a new course for our state. With your prayers, encouragement and support, we will succeed. May God bless Missouri and the United States of America.

The Navy Fleet Band Support 135th Army Band, MOARNG played "Armed Forces on Parade (Service Medley)".

The Benediction was pronounced by Pastor Paul Brooks, Senior Pastor, First Baptist Church, Raytown, Missouri.

Retirement of the Colors by the Joint Service Color Guard.

The audience remained standing, and Governor Blunt and Mrs. Blunt were escorted from the platform by the Legislative Inaugural Committee.

President Pro Tem of the Senate, Senator Michael R. Gibbons, adjourned the Joint Session of the 93rd General Assembly.

The time of recess having expired, the Senate was called to order by President Kinder.

The Joint Committee appointed to wait upon the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Ronnie L. White, escorted the Chief Justice to the dais where he delivered the State of the Judiciary Address to the Joint Assembly:

2005 STATE OF THE JUDICIARY ADDRESS

CHIEF JUSTICE RONNIE WHITE

President Kinder, Speaker Jetton, distinguished members of the Senate and House of Representatives, honorable statewide elected officials, esteemed Court colleagues, and honored guests - I thank you for the opportunity to come before you today. First, I want to take a moment to welcome the newest member of our Court. In a day and age in which courts throughout the country sometimes are accused of sitting in ivory towers, isolated from the world surrounding them, we are blessed with a person who has spent her entire judicial career breaking down these perceived barriers. Judge Mary Russell has sought to open the doors of our judicial processes to all who want to see them, and anyone who has met her knows that her affable demeanor and common-sense voice will add to the collegiality of our Court. She is an experienced appellate judge, serving nine years on the Court of Appeals, Eastern District. During her first year on the bench, I had the pleasure of being one of her colleagues. Since her appointment to the Supreme Court, Judge Russell has become involved in several Jefferson City civic activities, including volunteering as a truancy court judge in a local middle school. She also meets with students, parents and teachers each week, holding a mock court, to help ensure that students attend school regularly. Please join me in welcoming the Honorable Mary Rhodes Russell. I encourage any of you who do not know her already to take the opportunity to meet her - I am sure that you are going to like Judge Russell.

We also look forward to getting to know all of you, because as we all know, Judge Russell is not the only new officeholder in Jefferson City this year. Accordingly, we wish to extend an invitation to all of the new legislators to join us at the Supreme Court this afternoon so we can open what we hope proves to be just the beginning of a fruitful dialogue between our two branches of government.

We stand at the forefront of a new legislative session, a session that brings with it a new Speaker, a new President Pro Tem, new minority leaders in both chambers, and, of course, a new Governor, along with other new statewide elected officials and legislators. It is clear that the collective will of the people of this great state has dictated to us that change must be embraced, along with all the promises, challenges and hope that change brings. When the voters of this state deliver messages such as these, their importance is rarely lost on members of the legislative or executive branches whose job it is to carry them out.

We in the Judiciary must listen to this message of change as well. We must continue to look at what we might do to improve our efficiency and effectiveness so that public trust and confidence in our judicial system remains high. Public trust is not merely an amorphous concept to which we pay lip service; indeed, it is the very foundation of our judicial system and ultimately our democracy. It is an ongoing covenant between the governing and the governed, often renewed in the most unexpected times and places - places such as the Ukraine, where recent electoral and constitutional crises pushed the Judiciary into the middle of critical decisions on which the very rule of law hung in the balance. Even though it was certain that a sizable portion of the populace would disagree vehemently with its decision, no matter what it was, that nation took a major step forward into the community of nations by agreeing with and enforcing the Judiciary's obligation to make such a decision.

On a smaller scale, here in Missouri, it is this balance that the Judiciary must strike on a daily basis as we serve our role as the third, coequal branch of government. We must not presume to think that the greatly overused phrase "judicial independence" allows us to view ourselves as above any other branch of government or as unaccountable to the people we serve. Rather than independence, let us talk instead of interdependence. As Abraham Lincoln noted so eloquently 144 years ago: "A house divided against itself cannot stand."

The same can be said of our three branches of government. We can - and must - be faithful not only to the constitution but also to each other and to the roles we have been given by the architects of this great system. We in the Judiciary cannot extend ourselves into areas where our constitution or laws do not permit us to tread. Instead, we must remain neutral - free from political or ideological philosophies - free from high-dollar political campaigns - and retain faithfulness to the rule of law above all else.

Our role is fundamentally different from that of either the legislative or the executive branch in two ways. First, we do not have the power to change any law that we see fit to change or to proclaim law where no such law exists. Rather, we must only deal with the specific facts and issues that are brought before us, and even then we must only interpret the law, not make the law. Second, our role is not to represent the will of the people directly as you do. Instead, we exist to resolve disputes according to the rule of law and its principles. In the end, the Judiciary's role in our system of government is to make sure that the laws you pass and the constitutions of this great state and nation - laws and principles that we all are sworn to uphold and protect - stand as a bulwark of security and a model for rest of the world. No one in our state - or in our Judiciary - shall be above the law!

It may be that, in protecting these precepts, we run afoul of what is perceived as the will of the people on a given case or legal issue. However, we are constrained by our past rulings, the laws passed by this general assembly, our state and federal constitutions, and decisions of the United States Supreme Court. Taken together, this body of law preserves the will of the majority and the rights of the minority all at once, a tension that may result in decisions that, in some cases, are deemed by many to be unpopular. But popularity is not a criterion to be applied to judicial opinions. As a result of this tension - and I know this will surprise you - sometimes people might even be upset with us! Of course, we are in a business where typically half the people disagree with our decisions because they lost, and even a portion of those who won are upset because they do not think they won enough - and the people who are happy never seem to call their legislators! Regardless of this reality, we must welcome criticism and take it as evidence that the system of checks and balances and the rule of law that our forefathers envisioned are still working.

As United States Supreme Court Chief Justice William Rehnquist noted earlier this month in his annual report on the State of the Federal Judiciary, "criticism of judges and judicial decisions is as old as our republic, an outgrowth to some extent of the tensions built into our three-branch system of government." He further noted, "to a significant degree those tensions are healthy in maintaining a balance of power in our government."

While it may seem strange to some, a certain degree of tension between the branches can produce a more effective government for the people as a whole while ensuring that no branch of government can impinge on individual rights inappropriately. As each branch watches the others, all are driven to excel and meet the challenges raised in this ongoing experiment that is our system of government.

However, we must not let these tensions hinder or destroy our ability to cooperate with one another - remember, for example, the success that the cooperative Commission on Children's Justice has had in making strides toward real reform in our state's child abuse and neglect system. We also must not let these natural tensions prevent us from maintaining the consistency in the rule of law to which the people of this state are entitled.

I know that, as this session moves forward, you will spend countless hours looking deeply at how to improve the economy of this state, at how best to improve the lives of its citizens. All of us in government, all of our working people, all of our corporate citizens and the public at large want our state to grow and be prosperous. We want to experience good wages and benefits and healthy profits to expand commerce and spur the economy. As this general assembly addresses the issues of jobs and economic growth, I ask you to consider carefully the Judiciary's role in Missouri's economic engine. We play, in fact, a vital role and one that is not as easily recognized as, for example, the economic growth prerequisites of good transportation, good schools, a trained work force and fair taxes.

You will find that very high on industry's list of necessary components in reviewing the attractiveness of any state for relocation or for new plants is a solid, predictable, professional and efficient judicial system in which they can get a fair and consistent application of the law and treatment of their people. Corporations do not expect to receive a favorable decision every time they go to court, but they do expect to have the courts open every day of the week, every week of the year, available as a forum in which business interests can be litigated fairly and expeditiously. And these corporations also expect that the courts will not be swayed by public opinion or concerned about inflaming some interest group but rather will stick to their judicial business of applying the law fairly.

Our business centers on providing efficient services. We are not seeking to make a profit; rather, we seek to provide high quality judicial services at the lowest possible cost. Justice is served, disputes are settled fairly and promptly, and the economy marches on. We understand our role and we will, with your support, accomplish this mission. One other point: our courts, at an annual cost of $140 million in state general revenue, generated roughly $395 million in positive economic impact to our state. This was through fees, fines and costs paid to government entities, and money paid through our courts when private individuals and businesses seek our assistance in enforcing decisions. Money paid to government entities is distributed annually to local schools, counties, the state, and various funds such as the crime victims' compensation fund, the head injury fund, the prosecuting attorneys' training fund, and so on. In other words, we do our share.

As Alexander Hamilton so wisely observed 200 years ago, the judiciary has neither the power of the sword or of the purse, but merely judgment. Therefore, as you debate the various economic proposals and other matters that are certain to cross your desks, I ask that, as the body to whom the power of the purse has been given, you consider the role you play in preserving - and, indeed, in improving - our Judiciary and its resources. I hope to work with you in finding new ways to maintain a well-qualified judiciary and judicial staff, and I hope that, in the end, together we may live out our state motto - "Salus Populi Suprema Lex Esto" - Let the welfare of the people be the supreme law. Thank you.

On motion of Senator Shields, the Joint Session was dissolved and the Senators returned to the Chamber where they were called to order by President Kinder.

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

SEVENTH DAY--TUESDAY, JANUARY 18, 2005

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

"The heavens are telling the glory of God; and the firmament proclaims his handiwork." (Psalm 19:1)

Gracious God, we drove here safely in the beauty of the world around us. The sunlight nurtures us and the cold air revives us, reminding us that the smallest cell in our bodies is a most glorious miracle. So we pray, be with us and continue to open us to the glory of our world and this life and our place in it. And help us, Lord, be prepared for a week of new demands and increasing responsibilities. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

RESOLUTIONS

Senator Vogel offered the following resolution, which was read and adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 144

WHEREAS, the members of the Missouri Senate always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge the work of Show-Me State residents who have diligently helped state government to provide its much-needed services and programs in the efficient, effective manner mandated by the public; and

WHEREAS, Janice Sloca attained considerable distinction as a graduate of Fatima High School who first began her employment with the Missouri Senate on March 14, 1977 and who has spent the last twenty years as the Administrative Assistant to the Senate Administrator; and

WHEREAS, among her many successes and accomplishments, Janice has answered more phone calls than humanly possible; maintained organization amidst "beyond full capacity parking" in a 5-level, round parking garage; ensured access to every nook and cranny of the capitol from the basement to the dome; entertained the strangest of questions; assisted every lobbying interest wishing to "feed the masses" in the Rotunda; and guaranteed meeting space to every committee chairman requesting a room for that last-minute Executive Session; and

WHEREAS, Janice is now known simply as "Janice in the Senate Administrator's office" by all catering businesses in the area, for her last minute phone calls requesting "food for 100 in an hour" to satisfy the voracious appetites of several generations of Missouri State Senators; and

WHEREAS, the next phase of her career will displace her from her seemingly permanent residence in Room 324, she may still be found during down-time, buddied up next to a good friend: the Robin Hood penny machine at Boonville or enjoying a day of cards and food with family; and she'll certainly be "Wel-Comed-Inn" to her favorite watering hole; and

WHEREAS, colleagues will certainly miss the cocked-eyebrow look Janice possesses; a look that speaks volumes and causes nightmares; and

WHEREAS, Janice has earned the confidence and respect of all she has served; proving herself as a dedicated employee to the one hundred nineteen Senators who have served during her tenure, as well as the hundreds of co-workers who have had the privilege of working with her during her twenty-eight years of service; and

WHEREAS, Janice has been blessed with a wonderful family; her husband and best friend, Paul, with whom she shares compassion, understanding and an unconditional love; three children, Tracie, Curtis, and Shelley, all of which are instilled with the love and compassion that she possesses; and her mother and step-father, Velma and Charlie Huesgen:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the stellar contributions so generously given by Janice Sloca and convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she turns her time and energy to other venues of endeavor; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Janice Lynn Sloca of Jefferson City, Missouri.

The Joint Committee appointed to wait upon His Excellency, Governor Matt Blunt, escorted the Governor to the dais where he delivered the State of the State Address to the Joint Assembly:

Lt. Gov. Kinder, Mr. Speaker, Mr. President Pro Tem, distinguished state officials, judges of the Supreme Court, members of the General Assembly, reverend clergy, fellow Missourians:

I come before you this evening to share my vision for leading Missouri in a new direction. I am grateful for the opportunity to work with you to create a state government that respects the people and responds to their needs. It is my duty to recommend to you a budget for Fiscal Year 2006.

The past several years have been difficult for our state. Missouri's job loss crisis has hurt families in every region, reduced state revenue, and increased the demand on already strained social programs.

Missouri students and schools were caught in a political crossfire between the executive and legislative branches of government. Paralysis in the state Capitol caused local school boards to cut their budgets because they did not know how much money the state would provide.

State government's failure to reform the courts drove cherished family doctors and medical specialists from Missouri or out of practice altogether. Our current court system is unfair to doctors, but more importantly it harms every Missourian who struggles to find affordable medical care.

In spite of advances in technology and changes in the economy, state government still operates on an obsolete 1970s model. We have a typewriter government in an Internet age. Few efficient businesses and organizations are structured today the way they were 30 years ago. Missouri taxpayers are not getting full value for their hard-earned tax dollars.

My administration will focus on reversing this course and making Missouri a national leader and a model for other states.

First, so that all Missouri children can reach their full potential, we must make education our highest public policy and budget priority.

Second, to spur economic growth, we must help Missouri's entrepreneurs and employers create and retain good, family-supporting jobs.

Third, to enhance the quality of life, we must improve access to, and the affordability of, quality health care.

Finally, to give taxpayers proper value for their hard-earned tax dollars we will build a modern and efficient state government.

That is why I already signed an executive order prohibiting the purchase of additional cell phones, non-emergency vehicles and office space. We have closed an unnecessary Washington, D.C. lobbying office.

It is also why I have asked Stephen Bradford and Warren Erdman to lead a commission designed to re-evaluate the structure of our state government.

Missourians are ready for these changes and more. I invite all of you, regardless of party, to join with me in providing a government worthy of the people of this great state.

Public education is an investment in our future. If it is to be our top public policy priority, then it must also be our highest budget priority. That is why my budget provides 170.6 million dollars in new funding for our public schools.

This is a 4.7 % increase over last year. Tonight, I reaffirm my commitment that dollars approved for our classrooms will never be withheld under any circumstances whatsoever.

We must make this commitment to our school children in spite of anemic growth in the general revenue budget.

We must also make this commitment without any new job-killing taxes.

The budget that I submit to you tonight is based on the revenue that we will receive. This budget is not built upon tax increases. I do not, and will not, support increasing the tax burden on Missouri families. This means that we must make responsible and often difficult decisions in the rest of the budget.

My budget calls for significant reductions in spending for some state agencies and programs. It demands that state government live within the people's means, with no new job-destroying taxes that harm working families and diminish future economic opportunities.

We must meet our obligation to those who are truly in need of public assistance, but the current Medicaid program has grown far beyond the taxpayers' ability to pay. Rising health care costs and program expansions by previous administrations more than doubled expenditures in just six years. Without reform, Missouri will spend a larger percentage of our total budget on Medicaid than all but one other state. Without aggressive action we cannot properly fund education, or any of our other public policy priorities. With this in mind, I am proposing that we reform our state's Medicaid program. The program and eligibility changes included in this budget were not easily reached decisions, but we have put off the tough decisions for too long. Now is the time for decisive action. Missourians can no longer afford the second most expensive Medicaid program in the United States.

The reformed Medicaid Program will still spend over 5.3 billion dollars. That is 26% of our total state budget. Even after restructuring, we will still dedicate a larger share of our budget to Medicaid than all but 14 states. In other words, 35 other states will spend a smaller percentage of their budget on Medicaid even after we make these much needed changes. Working together, we must create a sustainable Medicaid program that is capable of providing medical care to those who truly need assistance.

There are well documented instances of individuals defrauding the Medicaid system and costing taxpayers millions of dollars each year. I am committed to stopping this theft of taxpayer dollars and I ask you to pass legislation requiring the Department of Social Services to conduct annual eligibility reviews of every Medicaid recipient. This and other anti-fraud measures could allow us to reclaim 75 million dollars in lost revenue for Missourians who truly need public assistance.

The Medicaid eligibility and program changes outlined in this budget will save 626 million dollars in state and federal revenue.

My budget protects all children and expectant mothers covered by Medicaid. Both of these initiatives are responsible uses of taxpayer dollars. Since 1998, the State Children's Health Insurance Program has extended health care coverage to more than 87,000 young Missourians. The CHIP's program is a proactive investment in the future of Missouri's children.

Over the past several years, the state's child welfare system has failed to adequately address the needs of children in its care. Child abuse and neglect offend the basic values of our state. We have a responsibility to provide safe settings for at-risk children and facilitate permanent placement for children who cannot return home. I propose that the state commit 9.5 million dollars to strengthen subsidized adoption and guardianship programs that find permanent homes for children in foster care. I also propose that we commit 7 million dollars to fund a rate increase for providers of residential treatment services for abused and neglected children.

I believe in the sanctity of life and in protecting unborn children. I support improved conscience protections for health-related professionals. I also support funding alternatives to abortion programs. And this year, I ask the Missouri General Assembly to pass legislation that prohibits the transporting of a minor across state lines for the purpose of obtaining an abortion without parental consent.

The Parents as Teachers program helps prevent child abuse, reduces the number of children in special education programs and ensures that young Missourians are better prepared to learn and advance to the next grade when they start school. This initiative has strengthened the essential bond between parents and their children in thousands of Missouri families. My budget also includes a 5 million dollar increase in the Parents as Teachers program.

The A+ Schools Program encourages high school students to stay in school, make career plans and graduate with the skills and knowledge required for career success. This program provides two years of community college education for students who meet specific requirements. I believe in the A+ program and my budget includes a 4 million dollar increase for this initiative.

Missouri ranks last in combating youth smoking. Most adult smokers start as teens. Missouri has not spent a single penny that we have received from the tobacco settlement to help young people kick the habit or prevent others from starting. This is wrong and my budget sets aside $875,000 as a first step to reduce smoking by our young people.

To provide relief and assistance to Missouri seniors, I have allocated funds to continue Missouri's Senior Rx program. This will give us time to analyze recently published federal rules for the Medicare prescription drug benefit. We must determine if, and then perhaps how, the state can complement the new federal prescription drug benefit.

In addition, to provide better in-home service care for seniors in their homes, I have included a $2 per hour wage increase for home health care providers.

Under my budget, Missourians with developmental disabilities would enjoy a higher quality of life in a less restrictive environment, instead of in a state-operated institution. I support plans to expand private-sector community placements through closure of the state-operated Bellefontaine Habilitation Center. These actions will save the state 13.8 million dollars and benefit Missourians with developmental disabilities.

This budget also calls for a reduction of over 1,000 of our state's 60,000 full-time government positions. These positions are spread all across our state, but to balance the budget, additional reductions beyond those that I have specifically identified are necessary. Such reductions must be achieved through better management without harming vital state programs. I am committed to rooting out wasteful spending and I have tasked my department directors with developing budget strategies for Fiscal Year 2006. My budget is based upon a 20% reduction in discretionary spending. Reductions in Fiscal Year 2006 will be part of a smaller core budget in the following years. This action is necessary if we are to increase funding for our public schools and hold the line on taxes.

Missouri is blessed with dedicated public servants. Together we will be tested as we work to reduce costs and deliver better service. Missourians want fair pay for their employees. We should not wait until an election year to do the right thing and I propose a 1% pay increase for all of Missouri's state employees. This does not apply to elected officials.

No new taxes are proposed in my budget. Missouri families pay enough in taxes. They want their state government to live within its means and to make difficult choices, just as they do, when times are tight.

Legislative Priorities

Now, I am pleased to present my legislative initiatives for better schools, a stronger economy, better health care and other important needs.

My number one legislative priority is public education. Few among us tonight in the State Capitol or at home believe the current school funding formula is acceptable. It fails to distribute public funds fairly and has created a system of have's and have not's.

Prior to being sworn into office, I invited teachers, administrators and legislative leaders from both sides of the aisle to an education summit. I said then, and I believe today, that working in a cooperative spirit we can craft a new school funding formula this legislative session that positively affects the lives of young Missourians.

I would like to introduce you to two Missouri students, Caroline Greenberg and Josh Wimpey. Both go to a public school. They are both loved by their families. They are equal in the eyes of God. They should be equal in the eyes of the state. However, one of their school districts spends $13,376 per year per child and the other one spends $5,175. That is neither right nor fair.

It is our responsibility as elected officials to fix this problem. Missourians expect and deserve no less.

We are all striving to find a formula that meets the needs of Caroline, Josh and all of our children. The consensus we reach should be based on principles that will offer fundamental change. First, we should allow some school districts to opt out of the formula. In exchange for no state assistance, they will free themselves from most state regulations. This will free up resources for our neediest schools. Second, we should distribute gambling and lottery revenue to school districts on a per pupil allocation. This will allow locally elected school boards to determine how to spend these dollars. Third, we should give school districts a new local option to use either the sales or income tax instead of the property tax. Finally, we must ensure that the special education needs of Missouri students are carefully considered. Again, education is my number one priority and a new formula must be crafted to ensure every Missouri child receives a world-class education.

A college education is increasingly a requirement for success in the workplace. Therefore, my budget maintains the current level of funding for our state's colleges and universities. To help families with children who wish to continue their education beyond high school, I look forward to working with Treasurer Steelman to expand Missouri's 529 plan, commonly referred to as MOST. The MOST fund's overall performance is of great concern to parents investing in the program. Currently, this program is operated by one fund manager and investors have few choices. I believe that Missouri should offer parents other options and that adding this element of competition will improve the fund's overall results.

To create greater opportunity for all Missourians we must improve our entrepreneurial climate.

High workers' compensation insurance premiums are costing Missouri jobs. In 2003, premiums increased by 13.8%. These premiums detract from an employers' ability to reinvest and grow his or her business and to hire new workers. Some Missouri companies have discovered that they can realize significant workers' compensation savings by moving to a neighboring state. The same problems plague even our public schools. In 2001, the Springfield Public School District spent $451,000 on workers' compensation insurance. In 2004, the District spent 1.4 million dollars - a nearly 1 million dollar increase. These are funds that District could have used to hire 24 additional teachers. Our workers' compensation system must ensure that every injured worker is fully and adequately compensated for work related injuries. But, we cannot afford a system that places us at a competitive disadvantage with other states. Missouri cannot effectively compete with other states for good, family-supporting jobs unless we address this problem.

We need to examine our regulation of telecommunications companies to take into account the changes in technology and realities of the market. The telecommunications industry is critical to the continued expansion of Missouri's economy. Telecommunications technology is changing rapidly and the marketplace is fast outpacing regulation. While making these changes, we must ensure that competitors are treated equally, that investment in infrastructure is encouraged and that consumers receive the benefits of competition.

Assisting our citizens in their efforts to preserve and improve their health is a critical mission of government. In recent years, our state has not given our family caregivers the protection they deserve from out of control medical malpractice insurance costs. This crisis hits every region of our state.

Now, I would like you to join me in welcoming Dr. Anthony Heit who is an OB-GYN. Because of the rising costs of medical malpractice insurance, he was forced to relocate his 13-physician practice to Kansas. What has happened to Dr. Heit, his partners and most importantly his patients has happened all across our state. Rural communities and entire counties lack doctors who will deliver babies. In our largest cities, hospitals and trauma centers have closed due to the loss of skilled specialists. The current litigation climate has created a healthcare crisis, and we must implement real reform now. Thank you for being here tonight Dr. Heit. I look forward to working with this legislature to make the much needed changes that will allow you, and other medical professionals, to return to our great state.

A comprehensive litigation reform bill should include limits on punitive and non-economic damages, strict venue restrictions and increased sanctions against unscrupulous attorneys who file frivolous lawsuits. I support a non-economic damage cap of $250,000. This reasonable cap has been a part of the solution in other states that have effectively addressed this problem. This bill should also eliminate joint and several liability, a rule that runs counter to fairness and common sense. Under the current system, a party can be forced to pay 100% of a settlement even if they are only 1% liable. I encourage you to pass a comparative fault rule that makes each defendant liable only for that portion of the damages for which they are directly responsible.

The same litigation reform that will improve health care will also help Missouri's small businesses create jobs and economic opportunity.

Strong economic growth also requires a safe and modern transportation system. Keep in mind as you consider possible changes to Missouri's transportation governance that MoDOT is a total transportation agency. I propose adding two members to the Transportation Commission--one representing air and mass transit and one representing freight and river transit. This change would create a total transportation emphasis within the Commission. Let me also assure you that my administration will keep faith with Missouri voters and fully implement Amendment 3. We will ensure that every tax dollar collected for transportation will be used to improve Missouri's transportation infrastructure.

Agriculture is the foundation of Missouri's economy. It is no accident that we are the best fed and best clothed nation in the world. It is because of the hard work and dedication of farmers all across the country and particularly right here in Missouri. Missouri farm families will benefit from many of the initiatives we are discussing tonight.

I support full funding for the bio-diesel and ethanol incentive funds, which will help position Missouri as a national leader in the fast-growing renewable fuels industry. This action will create new jobs in rural Missouri and lead to improved air quality for every Missourian.

Tonight, I assure communities all across our state that my administration will fully implement the Missouri Rural Economic Stimulus Act, which allows rural communities and counties to knock down barriers and create cutting edge agricultural opportunities.

Protecting Missouri families from violent criminals and ensuring that law enforcement officials have the support they need are two of the most important responsibilities of any governor and General Assembly.

Missouri leads the nation in the production of methamphetamine. In 2003, Missouri had more than twice as many meth incidents as any other state. Too many of our fellow citizens have suffered its ravages. Too many law enforcement officers have been killed or injured in the line of duty trying to fight this deadly epidemic.

I encourage you to pass legislation similar to a law in Oklahoma that has led to an 80% reduction in meth-related incidents. It would require that certain methamphetamine ingredients be purchased only through pharmacies and that customers' names be recorded. Such legislation will help stop methamphetamine producers. The production of methamphetamine is an environmental hazard. It creates dangers for Missouri law enforcement. That is why we must extend Heart and Lung protection to Missouri's law enforcement officers similar to that which has been provided to Missouri's firefighters.

I am honored that one of St. Louis' finest has joined us here this evening. Sgt. John McLaughlin is one of Missouri's law enforcement heroes who keeps our families safe. Sgt. McLaughlin, a 13-year veteran of the force, has been directly involved in working with neighborhoods in St. Louis besieged and threatened by crime for the past four years. He is helping to form a bond with residents and ensure that police and communities work together to stamp out the dangers that force people from neighborhoods - whether it be crimes against property or the constant presence of drug dealers. This kind of personal approach creates a partnership between law enforcement and the people they are bound to protect, and makes our streets safer for everyone. Thank you for being here tonight Sgt. McLaughlin and for your service to the people of St. Louis.

Patriotism is reflected in the faces of so many Missourians. Please join me in thanking those 562,000 brave Missouri veterans and their families for their service to America. As governor, I will never forget the sacrifices of our veterans and we will work hard to meet the needs of veterans' homes, cemeteries and veteran service programs.

We also want to recognize the current sacrifice and commitment of Missouri's citizen soldiers and their families. Missourians stand in defense of freedom around the globe. Two of Missouri's heroes are here with us tonight. Please join me in thanking Lt. Col. A.J. Probst and Sgt. Cindy Smart. Lt. Col. Probst was part of the team that helped liberate Afghanistan and create an independent army to defend its war-torn borders. Lt. Col. Probst was also able to watch as the first female ran for President of Afghanistan, a country that only a few years ago would not allow a woman to speak without the approval of her husband. Thank you Lt. Col. Probst.

Even as daily mortar attacks struck her base camp in Tikrit, not far from where Saddam Hussein was flushed from his hole in the ground, Sgt. Cindy Smart of the 235th Engineer Detachment supported our fighting troops. Thank you for being here tonight Sgt. Smart and for your steadfast service to our country.

We must continue to be mindful of the sacrifices being made by Missouri's guard and reserve members and their families. Let us never forget and honor always the ultimate sacrifices of the 29 Missourians who have given their lives in defense of our freedoms since March of 2003.

As we all know, there are many challenges before us, but where there are challenges there are also opportunities. The decisions reflected in my budget are not the easy decisions, but they are the right ones for our state. I will not lead you down a path of denial. We can no longer hide from our problems. My duty is to lead our state towards our full potential. I will not shirk this responsibility. I ask all of you to rise above partisanship and join in this great effort. Working together, we can provide every Missouri child with a world class education, improve access to affordable health care, provide a climate that helps entrepreneurs create good, family-supporting jobs, reevaluate and retool the structure of our government and hold the line on job-killing taxes.

The people expect us to work together, as partners, to bring positive change to Missouri. As Thomas Jefferson reminds us, not every difference of opinion is a difference of principle. I invite each of you to join with me in a partnership for progress that will benefit all the people of Missouri.

Thank you for allowing me to address you this evening. May God continue to bless each one of you and may God bless the Great State of Missouri.

On motion of Senator Shields, the Joint Session was dissolved and the Senators returned to the Chamber where they were called to order by President Kinder.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 150

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE CHANGE

Notice is hereby given by the Senator from the Thirty-fourth District of the one day notice required by rule of intent to put a motion to adopt the following rule change:

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Ninety-third General Assembly, First Regular Session, that Senate Rules 4, 6, 7, 14, 19, 21, 26, 27, 45, 52, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100, 101, and 102 of the temporary rules adopted January 5, 2005, be amended to read as follows:

"Rule 4. The president shall, on each day, announce the business in order agreeable to the preceding rule and no business shall be taken up or considered until the class to which it belongs is declared in order, but communications from the governor and reports from the Committee on Rules, Joint Rules, [and] Resolutions, and Ethics may be received at any time.

Rule 6. Upon the written request of the sponsor or floor handler of a bill, the committee on rules, joint rules, [and] resolutions, and ethics may recommend that any such bill on the calendars for perfection or house bills on third reading be called up or considered out of order in which the bill appears on that calendar. A recommendation to consider bills out of order shall require approval by a majority of the committee on rules, joint rules, [and] resolutions, and ethics with the concurrence of two-thirds of the senate members. No floor debate shall be allowed on the motion to adopt the committee report. Except as otherwise provided for in this paragraph, only the regular appropriation bills, including the deficiency and the omnibus bills, bills providing for legislative or congressional redistricting, bills producing more than three million dollars in additional state revenue, bills implementing amendments to the Missouri Constitution which were adopted at the immediately preceding state primary or general election, and bills requiring passage in order that the state receive funds from the federal government for the institution, continuance or expansion of federal-state programs, may be called up or considered out of the order in which the bill appears on the formal calendar of the senate.

All bills reported to the senate floor by the Committee on [State Budget Control] Governmental Accountability and Fiscal Oversight shall be placed on the appropriate formal calendar in a position, as near as may be, to that position which the bill would have had absent referral to the Committee on [State Budget Control] Governmental Accountability and Fiscal Oversight.

Rule 7. Upon the call of the senate, or upon taking the yeas and nays on any question, the names of the senators shall be called alphabetically, and a senator within the chamber shall vote when his or her name is called. No senator shall be allowed to cast or change his or her vote after yeas and nays have been announced by the president. In the event a senator within the chamber refuses to cast his or her vote, then at the direction of the president he or she shall be removed from the chamber and such action noted in the journal.

Rule 14. The president pro tem shall sign all acts, joint resolutions and addresses. All writs, warrants and subpoenas issued by order of the senate shall be under his or her hand attested by the secretary.

Rule 19. When a bill or joint resolution passes it shall be certified by the secretary, noting the day of its passage [at the foot thereof].

Rule 21. The secretary shall see that all amendments and substitutes are incorporated in any bill amended or substituted for when printed as perfected or truly agreed to, and shall perform such other duties as may be required by the Committee on Rules, Joint Rules, [and] Resolutions, and Ethics.

Rule 26. The membership of all standing committees and of all other committees and commissions, unless otherwise provided by the act or resolution creating them, shall be composed, as nearly as may be, of majority and minority party members in the same proportion as the number of majority and minority party members in the senate bears to the total membership of the senate. The president pro tem, the majority floor leader, and the minority floor leader shall be ex-officio members of all standing and statutory committees of the senate for the purpose of a quorum and discussion but shall have no vote unless they are duly appointed members of such committee.

Rule 27. The Committee on Parliamentary Procedure shall be composed of three members: the president pro tem, the chairman of the Committee on Judiciary and Civil and Criminal Jurisprudence, and the minority floor leader [appointed by the president pro tem. Not more than two members of the committee shall be of the same political party].

Rule 45. There shall be a senate consent calendar. The sponsor of a senate bill shall first give notice of desire to have a bill placed upon the senate consent calendar by filing in writing, with the chairman of the committee to which the bill was referred, a notice of intent one day prior to a committee hearing. The notice of intent shall set forth the nature of the legislation, the fact that it is not a controversial bill, and a request that the senate committee recommend that the bill be placed upon the consent calendar. A bill shall not be considered as consent if it increases net expenditures of the state by more than $100,000, reduces net revenue of the state by more than $100,000, increases an existing civil or criminal penalty or if it creates a new civil or criminal penalty. The bill will go to the senate consent calendar if, a quorum being present, it receives a unanimous affirmative vote of do pass by all members present at the senate committee to which the bill was referred, and there is thereafter a motion made and unanimously carried by affirmative vote of all those present that it be placed upon the consent calendar. Any bill approved by committee, for consent, may be reported to the consent calendar at any time the Senate goes to the order of business of committee reports. When a bill is placed upon the consent calendar, third reading shall not commence until the fifth legislative day. During this four-day period, starting with the first day the bill appears on the consent calendar in the Journal any member or the Committee on Rules, Joint Rules, [and] Resolutions, and Ethics may, by filing written objection with the Secretary of the Senate, direct that it be returned to the senate committee from which it was reported for action in accordance with the rules of the senate. A bill placed upon the senate consent calendar shall not be subject to amendment, except for committee amendments, and after the committee amendments have been disposed of shall be third read as though it had previously been perfected. If returned to committee, the chairman may report the bill to the senate at the next time that order of business is taken up, without further action of the committee. No senate bill may be placed on the consent calendar after March fifteenth and no house bill shall be placed on the consent calendar after April fifteenth.

Rule 52. [All] Senate bills reported to the senate from any committee shall lie on the table one day before being perfected and ordered printed[; and bills when reported perfected shall lie over one day before a third reading]. Senate bills reported perfected and house bills reported from committee shall lie over one day before being third read.

Rule 64. A substitute for the text of a bill is not in order until all pending amendments thereto have been disposed of. A substitute bill for an original bill or for a committee substitute shall take the form of an [original bill] amendment in the first degree and be subject to [floor] second-degree amendments, except that it shall not be subject to [more than one additional pending substitute which shall be in the first degree and subject to second degree amendments] amendment by a further floor substitute. No further amendments or substitutes may be entertained after the senate adopts a substitute bill.

Rule 65. The withdrawal of a pending motion by its maker or a motion to place a bill on the informal calendar, along with any pending amendments or substitutes, by its sponsor is a privilege that may be exercised at any time, even while another member is addressing the senate or if an amendment or substitute is pending. When the senate returns to the bill, the sponsor of the pending amendment or substitute shall be first recognized by the chair on the pending amendment or substitute.

Rule 66. 1. To effect the passage of a bill on the final reading thereof, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and the names of the senators voting for and against the same shall be entered and recorded in the Journal, and if a majority of the senators elected vote in favor thereof, the bill shall be declared passed. No senator shall be allowed to cast or change his or her vote after the senate's action on said question is announced by the president.

Rule [66.] 67. When a bill is put upon its final passage and, failing to pass, a motion is made to reconsider the vote by which it was defeated, the presiding officer shall briefly state the nature of the bill. Thereupon the vote on the motion to reconsider shall be immediately taken, without interrogation or debate, and the subject finally disposed of without interrogation or debate before the senate proceeds to any other business.

2. Any member may offer an amendment or amendments for the portion of a joint resolution or bill to be submitted to the voters by the General Assembly that contains the proposed official summary statement and fiscal note summary. Such amendment may be further amended as provided by the rules of the Senate.

Rule [67.] 68. No bill shall become a law until after it has been signed by the presiding officer of the senate, in open session. Before the presiding officer affixes his or her signature to any bill he or she shall suspend all other business, declare that the bill will now be read, and that if no objection be made he or she will sign it to the end that it may become a law. The bill shall then be read [at length] and if no objection is made, he or she shall, in the presence of the senate, in open session, and before any other business is entertained affix his or her signature, which fact shall be noted in the Journal, and the bill immediately sent to the other house. If any senator objects that any substitution, omission or insertion has occurred, so that the bill proposed to be signed is not the same in substance and form as when considered and passed by the senate or house, or that any particular clause of Article III of the Constitution has been violated in its passage, such objection shall be passed upon by the senate, and if sustained, the presiding officer shall withhold his or her signature; but if the objection is not sustained, then any five members may embody it over their signature, in a written protest, under oath, against the signing of the bill. The protest, when offered in the senate, shall be noted upon the Journal, and the original shall be annexed to the bill, to be considered by the governor in connection therewith; and if the bill is one that has not been first signed by the presiding officer of the house, it shall immediately be sent to the house after it has been so read and signed in the senate, for such action thereon in the house as is prescribed by the constitution. (Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 30.)

Rule [68.] 69. When any bill passed by both houses has been signed as provided for in the preceding rule, it is the duty of the secretary of the senate, if the bill originated in the senate, to present it in person, on the same day on which it was signed, as aforesaid, to the governor, take his or her receipt therefor and enter the fact of such delivery and the time thereof upon the Journal. Every bill presented to the governor and returned within fifteen days to the house in which it originated, with the approval of the governor shall become a law unless it is in violation of some provision of the constitution.

Rule [69.] 70. Bills vetoed by the governor and returned to the senate by the governor or by the house shall stand as reconsidered and such action shall be taken thereon as prescribed by the constitution and by the Joint Rules of the Senate and House of Representatives. (Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 32.)

Rule [70.] 71. All resolutions proposing amendments to the constitution shall be treated, in all respects, in the introduction and form of proceedings on them in the senate, in the same manner as bills. All other orders and resolutions (except courtesy resolutions) shall be referred to a committee unless the senate otherwise expressly allows by a majority vote of senators elected. Courtesy resolutions will be read only upon request of the senator offering the resolution. Courtesy resolutions shall be printed in the Journal only upon the request of the senator offering the resolution. A senator who wishes to offer a courtesy resolution which is not to be read or printed may file the resolution with the secretary of senate who will show the resolution in the Journal as having been adopted by the senate.

Rule [71.] 72. A motion to adjourn and a motion to fix the day to which the senate shall adjourn is in order, unless a senator is speaking, or the yeas and nays are being taken, or a call is being made, and shall be decided without debate; and no senator shall leave his or her seat until the result is declared.

Rule [72.] 73. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to postpone to a day certain, to commit or amend, to postpone indefinitely, which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged. Pending the motion to lay on the table, the merits of the question shall not be discussed, and no motion to postpone to a certain day, to commit or postpone indefinitely, being decided, shall again be allowed on the same day, at the same stage of the bill or proposition.

Rule [73.] 74. When a question is postponed indefinitely it shall not be acted on during the session.

Rule [74.] 75. When a question is laid on the table, it may not thereafter be considered except by vote of two-thirds of the senators elected, except that all measures, other than bills which stand as reconsidered having been returned by the governor with his or her objections, not finally acted upon on adjournment of the senate in odd-numbered years shall lie on the table and the subject matter of such measures may be taken from the table only by reintroduction of a measure at a subsequent session of the senate.

Rule [75.] 76. When a senator is about to speak, he or she should rise respectfully and address himself to the chair, standing at his or her seat, and wait until his or her name or designation is announced, when he or she shall proceed, addressing himself always to the chair. In order to maintain the recognition of the chair, the senator must be engaged in debate or in discourse. When a senator is engaged in debate or discussion and seeks to have the senate stand at ease, the senator must seek unanimous consent of the body.

Rule [76.] 77. 1. If two or more senators rise at once, the chair shall name the senator who is to speak first, the other rising having the preference next to speak. However, nothing in this rule shall be interpreted to prevent any senator not chosen to speak first from immediately making any motion that is in order under the rules.

2. No member shall interrupt another senator who has the floor or otherwise interrupt the business of the senate, except for the purpose of making a point of order, calling the member having the floor to order, moving the previous question, making an inquiry of the chair, or requesting that the senator having the floor yield. Though another member has the floor, any member shall be recognized by the presiding officer for the purpose of making a point of order, calling the member having the floor to order, moving the previous question, making an inquiry of the chair, or requesting that the senator having the floor yield.

Rule [77.] 78. The chair shall preserve decorum, and if any senator transgresses the rules of the senate, the chair shall, or any senator may, call him to order, in which case the senator called to order shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain; and the senate, if appealed to, shall decide on the case. If there is no appeal, the decision of the chair shall prevail. If the decision of the chair is in favor of the senator called to order, he or she shall be at liberty to proceed.

Rule [78.] 79. If a senator is called to order for words spoken in debate, the senator calling him to order shall repeat the words excepted to, and they shall be taken down in writing on the secretary's table, and no senator shall be held to answer, or be subject to the censure of the senate for words spoken in debate, if any other senator has spoken or business has intervened after the words spoken and before exception to them has been taken.

Rule [79.] 80. No senator shall speak more than once on the same question without leave of the senate, unless he or she is the mover, proposer or introducer of the matter pending, in which case he or she shall be permitted to speak or reply, but not until every senator choosing to speak has spoken. After a senator has been recognized to close, no other senator is permitted to speak on the pending matter, except that in the case of a proposed amendment to a bill or resolution, the proponent of the amendment and the author of the bill or resolution to be amended may be interrogated, but, in the case of a bill or resolution, only the author of the bill or resolution may be interrogated.

Rule [80.] 81. In proceedings and debate of the senate, the senators shall not be spoken of or addressed by their individual names.

Rule [81.] 82. If the question in debate contains several points, any senator may have it divided if it comprehends propositions in substance so distinct that by one being taken away a substantive proposition remains for the decision of the senate. On motion to strike out and insert, it shall not be in order to move for a division of the question, but a rejection of the motion to strike out and insert a different proposition shall not prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out, nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

Rule [82.] 83. On the discussion of any business which may, in the opinion of a senator require secrecy, the president shall order the gallery to be cleared, and during the discussion the doors shall remain closed unless otherwise directed by the senate. When nominations are made in writing by the governor of the state to the senate for confirmation, the confirmation shall, without debate, be sent to the senate for confirmation, the confirmation shall, without debate, be referred to the appropriate committee for investigation, and their report shall be made to the senate as soon as practicable.

Rule [83.] 84. The previous question shall be in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?". It shall only be admitted on written demand of five senators, and sustained by a vote of a majority of the senators elected, and in effect shall be put without debate, and bring the senate to direct vote upon a motion to commit, if such motion shall have been made; and if this motion does not prevail, then upon amendments, and then upon the main question. On demand for the previous question, a call of the senate shall be in order, but after a majority of the senators elected have sustained such a motion, no call shall be in order prior to the decision on the main question.

Rule [84.] 85. On motion of the previous question, no debate shall be allowed and all incidental questions of order arising after the motion is made for the previous question, and pending such motion, shall be decided on appeal or otherwise without debate; if, on a vote for the previous question, the motion is not sustained by a majority of the senators elected, then the further consideration of the subject matter shall be in order.

Rule [85.] 86. Every motion, except motion to recess or adjourn, shall be reduced to writing if two or more senators request it.

Rule [86.] 87. When a motion is made it shall be stated by the chair, or being in writing, it shall be handed to and read aloud by the secretary before debate.

Rule [87.] 88. After a motion is stated by the chair, it is deemed to be in possession of the senate, but may be withdrawn at any time before a decision or amendment, but afterwards only with the consent of the senate.

Rule [88.] 89. All questions, whether in committee or senate, shall be first stated in the order in which they are moved, but voted upon in reverse order, except privileged questions, which shall be propounded as stated in Rule 73; and in filling up blanks, the largest sum and longest time shall be put first.

Rule [89.] 90. The yeas and nays shall not be ordered on any question after a vote has been taken thereon and declared by the chair.

Rule [90.] 91. Every senator who is within the bar of the senate when a question is put shall assume his or her seat, and shall vote when his or her name is called unless the senate, for special reasons, excuses him. All motions to excuse a senator from voting shall be made before the senate divides, or before the call for yeas and nays is commenced. In taking the yeas and nays, each senator shall declare distinctly his or her vote yea or nay. In the event a senator within the chamber refuses to cast his or her vote, then, at the direction of the president, he or she shall be removed from the chamber and such action noted in the Journal.

Rule [91.] 92. When a question has once been decided by a vote of the senate, any senator voting on that side which prevails may move for a reconsideration of the vote at any time within three legislative days, excluding legislative days wherein the roll is not called, after the day on which the vote was had, except votes ordering bills printed as perfected, which may be reconsidered at any time before third reading of such bills. When a motion is made to reconsider the vote by which a bill failed of perfection, the presiding officer shall briefly state the nature of the bill and, thereupon, the vote on the motion to reconsider shall be immediately taken without interrogation or debate. All motions to reconsider shall be decided by a majority vote of the senators elected. Only one motion to reconsider shall be allowed on any question.

Rule [92.] 93. Any senator voting in the minority on any subject, and protesting against the vote of the senate, may have his or her protest entered on the Journal, if the tenor and language of the protest would have been admissible in the discussion of the subject.

Rule [93.] 94. No person except members of the house of representatives, former members of the senate, the governor, the secretary of state, the state auditor, the state treasurer, judges of the supreme court, courts of appeals or circuit courts, attorney general and the congress, shall be admitted within the senate chamber during the sitting of the senate, unless invited by the senate; except that the seats at the north and south ends of the senate chamber may be reserved for spouses and families of members of the senate, and other persons may be admitted to the senate chamber on special request of any senator when the senate is in session. Access to the third floor rear gallery shall be limited to senators during the hours in which the senate is engaged in floor session. Any use of the gallery when the senate is not in session must be approved by the Chairman of the Committee on Administration.

Rule [94.] 95. No senator shall absent himself from the session of the senate unless he or she has leave or is sick or unable to attend. A member who is absent from the chamber for attendance at a standing committee meeting, or a conference committee meeting shall be shown as absent with leave (committee). It shall be the responsibility of the member to advise the secretary of the senate of his or her attendance at such committee meeting.

Rule [95.] 96. 1. [Notetaking and writing in the Senate Gallery is permissible, but no person shall enter the Senate Gallery with any typewriter or recording device.] Laptop computers may be used [by the press at the press table] in the Senate Chamber as long as their use does not violate Rule 77 or is otherwise disruptive to the business of the Senate. No person shall take any photograph in the Senate Gallery. Persons with cameras, flash cameras, lights, or other paraphernalia may be allowed to use such devices at committee meetings with the permission of the Chairman as long as they [don't] do not prove disruptive to the decorum of the committee. Smoking is not permissible in the Senate Chamber or Gallery, committee rooms, lounge, the hallways, restrooms or elevators.

2. For the purpose of compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, the President Pro Tem may designate a portion of the Senate Chamber as handicap accessible and such areas shall not be considered a part of the floor of the Senate for the purposes of section 21.420, RSMo. Persons using such area shall not lobby members of the Senate while going to and from or while using the designated area.

Rule [96.] 97. In cases not provided for in these rules, the senate shall be governed by the rules laid down in the practice and procedures adopted by the Senate of the United States and Jefferson's Manual, including the U.S. Senate practice that a substitute amendment to a first degree amendment is subject to a second degree perfecting amendment.

Rule [97.] 98. No standing rule or order of the senate shall be rescinded or changed without one day's notice being given of the motion thereof, which notice shall be printed in the journal of the senate, and then only by a vote of at least a majority of the senators elected; except that any rule, including this rule, may be suspended for a special purpose, stated in the motion to suspend, by a vote of a two-thirds majority of the members elected to the senate, and such rule shall remain suspended only until the senate proceeds to the consideration of business other than that for which the rule was suspended. Upon one day's notice of the proposed rule change having been given, the senate resolution adopting such rule change shall not be assigned to a committee without consent of the sponsoring senator and shall be in order to be considered by the senate at any day or time thereafter upon motion of the sponsor during the order of business of Resolutions.

Rule [98.] 99. No senator shall be permitted to interrupt a roll call and no senator shall be allowed to change his or her vote after a verification is requested by any senator, or after the final vote is announced. When verification is requested, any senator within the chamber who has not voted shall vote prior to the verification of the roll.

Rule [99.] 100. A roll call vote of the senate shall be taken upon any question at the request of five senators.

Rule [100.] 101. All senate committees shall meet on call of the chairman and the regular meetings of the committees shall be held at the times and places designated by the Committee on Administration.

Rule [101.] 102. Public introduction of guests shall not be allowed in the Senate Chamber during the last ten calendar days of the session. At other times, the introduction of guests shall be the order of business at the beginning of each daily meeting of the Senate and immediately prior to daily adjournment.

[Rule 102. A member of the Senate may accept meals, food, beverage or other gifts from a legislative lobbyist or the lobbyist's principal as defined in section 105.470. (4) (a), RSMo, if any single item accepted has a value of less than fifty dollars, and all items accepted by any member in any calendar year from a lobbyist or lobbyist principal, as defined in section 105.4703. (4) (a), do not exceed a value of one hundred dollars in the aggregate.

This rule shall not apply to:

(1) The participation of members in activities authorized in Section 105.473.3 (2) (c), RSMo, or in caucuses approved by the Senate Ethics Committee, regardless of the aggregate value;

(2) The participation in seminars or meetings of national or regional associations when such participation and activities have been requested in writing and approved in advance by the Committee on Administration or participation in seminars or meetings of a state association or receipt of educational materials from a state association;

(3) The acceptance of meals, food or beverage or other gifts to be used for charitable purposes, as defined by law, and which are not consumed or used for the personal benefit of the member; or

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

FOURTEENTH DAY--MONDAY, JANUARY 31, 2005

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Kinder in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

Edward John Phelps in 1899 said, "The man who makes no mistakes does not usually make anything."

Gracious God, we know that we don't get through the day without making some mistakes and we know that successful people fail many times; so we turn such moments and times over to You and pray that through them we will learn to serve You and our people better and become more successful in what we hope to accomplish here. And we pray for Senator Wheeler's wife, touch her with Your healing power and let it flow to every cell of her body, bringing her strength and health throughout her body. And we ask You provide the doctors with guidance and wisdom to help her. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The secretary shall see that all amendments and substitutes are incorporated in any bill amended or substituted for when printed as perfected or truly agreed to, and shall perform such other duties as may be required by the Committee on Rules, Joint Rules, [and] Resolutions, and Ethics.

Rule 26. The membership of all standing committees and of all other committees and commissions, unless otherwise provided by the act or resolution creating them, shall be composed, as nearly as may be, of majority and minority party members in the same proportion as the number of majority and minority party members in the senate bears to the total membership of the senate. The president pro tem, the majority floor leader, and the minority floor leader shall be ex-officio members of all standing and statutory committees of the senate for the purpose of a quorum and discussion but shall have no vote unless they are duly appointed members of such committee.

Rule 27. The Committee on Parliamentary Procedure shall be composed of three members: the president pro tem, the chairman of the Committee on the Judiciary and Civil and Criminal Jurisprudence, and the minority floor leader [appointed by the president pro tem. Not more than two members of the committee shall be of the same political party].

Rule 45. There shall be a senate consent calendar. The sponsor of a senate bill shall first give notice of desire to have a bill placed upon the senate consent calendar by filing in writing, with the chairman of the committee to which the bill was referred, a notice of intent one day prior to a committee hearing. The notice of intent shall set forth the nature of the legislation, the fact that it is not a controversial bill, and a request that the senate committee recommend that the bill be placed upon the consent calendar. A bill shall not be considered as consent if it increases net expenditures of the state by more than $100,000, reduces net revenue of the state by more than $100,000, increases an existing civil or criminal penalty or if it creates a new civil or criminal penalty. The bill will go to the senate consent calendar if, a quorum being present, it receives a unanimous affirmative vote of do pass by all members present at the senate committee to which the bill was referred, and there is thereafter a motion made and unanimously carried by affirmative vote of all those present that it be placed upon the consent calendar. Any bill approved by committee, for consent, may be reported to the consent calendar at any time the Senate goes to the order of business of committee reports. When a bill is placed upon the consent calendar, third reading shall not commence until the fifth legislative day. During this four-day period, starting with the first day the bill appears on the consent calendar in the Journal any member or the Committee on Rules, Joint Rules, [and] Resolutions, and Ethics may, by filing written objection with the Secretary of the Senate, direct that it be returned to the senate committee from which it was reported for action in accordance with the rules of the senate. A bill placed upon the senate consent calendar shall not be subject to amendment, except for committee amendments, and after the committee amendments have been disposed of shall be third read as though it had previously been perfected. If returned to committee, the chairman may report the bill to the senate at the next time that order of business is taken up, without further action of the committee. No senate bill may be placed on the consent calendar after March fifteenth and no house bill shall be placed on the consent calendar after April fifteenth.

Rule 52. [All] Senate bills reported to the senate from any committee shall lie on the table one day before being perfected and ordered printed[; and bills when reported perfected shall lie over one day before a third reading]. Senate bills reported perfected and house bills reported from committee shall lie over one day before being third read.

Rule 64. A substitute for the text of a bill is not in order until all pending amendments thereto have been disposed of. A substitute bill for an original bill or for a committee substitute shall take the form of an original bill and be subject to floor amendments, except that it shall not be subject to [more than one additional pending substitute which shall be in the first degree and subject to second degree amendments] amendment by a further floor substitute. No further amendments or substitutes may be entertained after the senate adopts a substitute bill.

Rule 65. The withdrawal of a pending motion by its maker or a motion to place a bill on the informal calendar, along with any pending amendments or substitutes, by its sponsor is a privilege that may be exercised at any time, even while another member is addressing the senate or if an amendment or substitute is pending. When the senate returns to the bill, the sponsor of the pending amendment or substitute shall be first recognized by the chair on the pending amendment or substitute.

Rule 66. 1. To effect the passage of a bill on the final reading thereof, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and the names of the senators voting for and against the same shall be entered and recorded in the Journal, and if a majority of the senators elected vote in favor thereof, the bill shall be declared passed. No senator shall be allowed to cast or change his or her vote after the senate's action on said question is announced by the president.

2. Any member may offer an amendment or amendments for the portion of a joint resolution or bill to be submitted to the voters by the General Assembly that contains the proposed official summary statement and fiscal note summary. Such amendment may be further amended as provided by the rules of the Senate.

Rule [66.] 67. When a bill is put upon its final passage and, failing to pass, a motion is made to reconsider the vote by which it was defeated, the presiding officer shall briefly state the nature of the bill. Thereupon the vote on the motion to reconsider shall be immediately taken, without interrogation or debate, and the subject finally disposed of without interrogation or debate before the senate proceeds to any other business.

Rule [67.] 68. No bill shall become a law until after it has been signed by the presiding officer of the senate, in open session. Before the presiding officer affixes his or her signature to any bill he or she shall suspend all other business, declare that the bill will now be read, and that if no objection be made he or she will sign it to the end that it may become a law. The bill shall then be read [at length] and if no objection is made, he or she shall, in the presence of the senate, in open session, and before any other business is entertained affix his or her signature, which fact shall be noted in the Journal, and the bill immediately sent to the other house. If any senator objects that any substitution, omission or insertion has occurred, so that the bill proposed to be signed is not the same in substance and form as when considered and passed by the senate or house, or that any particular clause of Article III of the Constitution has been violated in its passage, such objection shall be passed upon by the senate, and if sustained, the presiding officer shall withhold his or her signature; but if the objection is not sustained, then any five members may embody it over their signature, in a written protest, under oath, against the signing of the bill. The protest, when offered in the senate, shall be noted upon the Journal, and the original shall be annexed to the bill, to be considered by the governor in connection therewith; and if the bill is one that has not been first signed by the presiding officer of the house, it shall immediately be sent to the house after it has been so read and signed in the senate, for such action thereon in the house as is prescribed by the constitution. (Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 30.)

Rule [68.] 69. When any bill passed by both houses has been signed as provided for in the preceding rule, it is the duty of the secretary of the senate, if the bill originated in the senate, to present it in person, on the same day on which it was signed, as aforesaid, to the governor, take his or her receipt therefor and enter the fact of such delivery and the time thereof upon the Journal. Every bill presented to the governor and returned within fifteen days to the house in which it originated, with the approval of the governor shall become a law unless it is in violation of some provision of the constitution.

Rule [69.] 70. Bills vetoed by the governor and returned to the senate by the governor or by the house shall stand as reconsidered and such action shall be taken thereon as prescribed by the constitution and by the Joint Rules of the Senate and House of Representatives. (Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 32.)

Rule [70.] 71. All resolutions proposing amendments to the constitution shall be treated, in all respects, in the introduction and form of proceedings on them in the senate, in the same manner as bills. All other orders and resolutions (except courtesy resolutions) shall be referred to a committee unless the senate otherwise expressly allows by a majority vote of senators elected. Courtesy resolutions will be read only upon request of the senator offering the resolution. Courtesy resolutions shall be printed in the Journal only upon the request of the senator offering the resolution. A senator who wishes to offer a courtesy resolution which is not to be read or printed may file the resolution with the secretary of senate who will show the resolution in the Journal as having been adopted by the senate.

Rule [71.] 72. A motion to adjourn and a motion to fix the day to which the senate shall adjourn is in order, unless a senator is speaking, or the yeas and nays are being taken, or a call is being made, and shall be decided without debate; and no senator shall leave his or her seat until the result is declared.

Rule [72.] 73. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to postpone to a day certain, to commit or amend, to postpone indefinitely, which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged. Pending the motion to lay on the table, the merits of the question shall not be discussed, and no motion to postpone to a certain day, to commit or postpone indefinitely, being decided, shall again be allowed on the same day, at the same stage of the bill or proposition.

Rule [73.] 74. When a question is postponed indefinitely it shall not be acted on during the session.

Rule [74.] 75. When a question is laid on the table, it may not thereafter be considered except by vote of two-thirds of the senators elected, except that all measures, other than bills which stand as reconsidered having been returned by the governor with his or her objections, not finally acted upon on adjournment of the senate in odd-numbered years shall lie on the table and the subject matter of such measures may be taken from the table only by reintroduction of a measure at a subsequent session of the senate.

Rule [75.] 76. When a senator is about to speak, he or she should rise respectfully and address himself or herself to the chair, standing at his or her seat, and wait until his or her name or designation is announced, when he or she shall proceed, addressing himself or herself always to the chair. If a senator is unable to stand due to a permanent physical disability, he or she, after seeking recognition from the chair, shall be recognized in lieu of standing. If a senator is unable to stand due to a temporary physical disability, he or she shall send a letter to the secretary of the senate, which shall be printed in the journal and subsequently shall be recognized from the chair in lieu of standing. In order to maintain the recognition of the chair, the senator must be engaged in debate or in discourse. When a senator is engaged in debate or discussion and seeks to have the senate stand at ease, the senator must seek unanimous consent of the body.

Rule [76.] 77. If two or more senators rise at once, the chair shall name the senator who is to speak first, the other rising having the preference next to speak. However, nothing in this rule shall be interpreted to prevent any senator not chosen to speak first from immediately making any motion that is in order under the rules.

Rule [77.] 78. The chair shall preserve decorum, and if any senator transgresses the rules of the senate, the chair shall, or any senator may, call him or her to order, in which case the senator called to order shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain; and the senate, if appealed to, shall decide on the case. If there is no appeal, the decision of the chair shall prevail. If the decision of the chair is in favor of the senator called to order, he or she shall be at liberty to proceed.

Rule [78.] 79. If a senator is called to order for words spoken in debate, the senator calling him or her to order shall repeat the words excepted to, and they shall be taken down in writing on the secretary's table, and no senator shall be held to answer, or be subject to the censure of the senate for words spoken in debate, if any other senator has spoken or business has intervened after the words spoken and before exception to them has been taken.

Rule [79.] 80. No senator shall speak more than once on the same question without leave of the senate, unless he or she is the mover, proposer or introducer of the matter pending, in which case he or she shall be permitted to speak or reply, but not until every senator choosing to speak has spoken. After a senator has been recognized to close, no other senator is permitted to speak on the pending matter, except that in the case of a proposed amendment to a bill or resolution, the proponent of the amendment and the author of the bill or resolution to be amended may be interrogated, but, in the case of a bill or resolution, only the author of the bill or resolution may be interrogated.

Rule [80.] 81. In proceedings and debate of the senate, the senators shall not be spoken of or addressed by their individual names.

Rule [81.] 82. If the question in debate contains several points, any senator may have it divided if it comprehends propositions in substance so distinct that by one being taken away a substantive proposition remains for the decision of the senate. On motion to strike out and insert, it shall not be in order to move for a division of the question, but a rejection of the motion to strike out and insert a different proposition shall not prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out, nor shall the rejection of a motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert.

Rule [82.] 83. On the discussion of any business which may, in the opinion of a senator require secrecy, the president shall order the gallery to be cleared, and during the discussion the doors shall remain closed unless otherwise directed by the senate. When nominations are made in writing by the governor of the state to the senate for confirmation, the confirmation shall, without debate, be sent to the senate for confirmation, the confirmation shall, without debate, be referred to the appropriate committee for investigation, and their report shall be made to the senate as soon as practicable.

Rule [83.] 84. The previous question shall be in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?". It shall only be admitted on written demand of five senators, and sustained by a vote of a majority of the senators elected, and in effect shall be put without debate, and bring the senate to direct vote upon a motion to commit, if such motion shall have been made; and if this motion does not prevail, then upon amendments, and then upon the main question. On demand for the previous question, a call of the senate shall be in order, but after a majority of the senators elected have sustained such a motion, no call shall be in order prior to the decision on the main question.

Rule [84.] 85. On motion of the previous question, no debate shall be allowed and all incidental questions of order arising after the motion is made for the previous question, and pending such motion, shall be decided on appeal or otherwise without debate; if, on a vote for the previous question, the motion is not sustained by a majority of the senators elected, then the further consideration of the subject matter shall be in order.

Rule [85.] 86. Every motion, except motion to recess or adjourn, shall be reduced to writing if two or more senators request it.

Rule [86.] 87. When a motion is made it shall be stated by the chair, or being in writing, it shall be handed to and read aloud by the secretary before debate.

Rule [87.] 88. After a motion is stated by the chair, it is deemed to be in possession of the senate, but may be withdrawn at any time before a decision or amendment, but afterwards only with the consent of the senate.

Rule [88.] 89. All questions, whether in committee or senate, shall be first stated in the order in which they are moved, but voted upon in reverse order, except privileged questions, which shall be propounded as stated in Rule 73; and in filling up blanks, the largest sum and longest time shall be put first.

Rule [89.] 90. The yeas and nays shall not be ordered on any question after a vote has been taken thereon and declared by the chair.

Rule [90.] 91. Every senator who is within the bar of the senate when a question is put shall assume his or her seat, and shall vote when his or her name is called unless the senate, for special reasons, excuses him or her. All motions to excuse a senator from voting shall be made before the senate divides, or before the call for yeas and nays is commenced. In taking the yeas and nays, each senator shall declare distinctly his or her vote yea or nay. In the event a senator within the chamber refuses to cast his or her vote, then, at the direction of the president, he or she shall be removed from the chamber and such action noted in the Journal.

Rule [91.] 92. When a question has once been decided by a vote of the senate, any senator voting on that side which prevails may move for a reconsideration of the vote at any time within three legislative days, excluding legislative days wherein the roll is not called, after the day on which the vote was had, except votes ordering bills printed as perfected, which may be reconsidered at any time before third reading of such bills. When a motion is made to reconsider the vote by which a bill failed of perfection, the presiding officer shall briefly state the nature of the bill and, thereupon, the vote on the motion to reconsider shall be immediately taken without interrogation or debate. All motions to reconsider shall be decided by a majority vote of the senators elected. Only one motion to reconsider shall be allowed on any question.

Rule [92.] 93. Any senator voting in the minority on any subject, and protesting against the vote of the senate, may have his or her protest entered on the Journal, if the tenor and language of the protest would have been admissible in the discussion of the subject.

Rule [93.] 94. No person except members of the house of representatives, former members of the senate, the governor, the secretary of state, the state auditor, the state treasurer, judges of the supreme court, courts of appeals or circuit courts, attorney general and the congress, shall be admitted within the senate chamber during the sitting of the senate, unless invited by the senate; except that the seats at the north and south ends of the senate chamber may be reserved for spouses and families of members of the senate, and other persons may be admitted to the senate chamber on special request of any senator when the senate is in session. Access to the third floor rear gallery shall be limited to senators during the hours in which the senate is engaged in floor session. Any use of the gallery when the senate is not in session must be approved by the Chairman of the Committee on Administration.

Rule [94.] 95. No senator shall absent himself or herself from the session of the senate unless he or she has leave or is sick or unable to attend. A member who is absent from the chamber for attendance at a standing committee meeting, or a conference committee meeting shall be shown as absent with leave (committee). It shall be the responsibility of the member to advise the secretary of the senate of his or her attendance at such committee meeting.

Rule [95.] 96. 1. [Notetaking and writing in the Senate Gallery is permissible, but no person shall enter the Senate Gallery with any typewriter or recording device.] Laptop computers may be used by the press at the press table and by the research staff at the research table in the Senate Chamber as long as their use does not violate Rule 78 or is otherwise disruptive to the business of the Senate. No person shall take any photograph in the Senate Gallery. Persons with cameras, flash cameras, lights, or other paraphernalia may be allowed to use such devices at committee meetings with the permission of the Chairman as long as they [don't] do not prove disruptive to the decorum of the committee. Smoking is not permissible in the Senate Chamber or Gallery, committee rooms, lounge, the hallways, restrooms or elevators.

2. For the purpose of compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, the President Pro Tem may designate a portion of the Senate Chamber as handicap accessible and such areas shall not be considered a part of the floor of the Senate for the purposes of section 21.420, RSMo. Persons using such area shall not lobby members of the Senate while going to and from or while using the designated area.

Rule [96.] 97. In cases not provided for in these rules, the senate shall be governed by the rules laid down in the practice and procedures adopted by the Senate of the United States and Jefferson's Manual, including the U.S. Senate practice that a substitute amendment to a first degree amendment is subject to a second degree perfecting amendment.

Rule [97.] 98. No standing rule or order of the senate shall be rescinded or changed without one day's notice being given of the motion thereof, which notice shall be printed in the journal of the senate, and then only by a vote of at least a majority of the senators elected; except that any rule, including this rule, may be suspended for a special purpose, stated in the motion to suspend, by a vote of a two-thirds majority of the members elected to the senate, and such rule shall remain suspended only until the senate proceeds to the consideration of business other than that for which the rule was suspended. Upon one day's notice of the proposed rule change having been given, the senate resolution adopting such rule change shall not be assigned to a committee without consent of the sponsoring senator and shall be in order to be considered by the senate at any day or time thereafter upon motion of the sponsor during the order of business of Resolutions.

Rule [98.] 99. No senator shall be permitted to interrupt a roll call and no senator shall be allowed to change his or her vote after a verification is requested by any senator, or after the final vote is announced. When verification is requested, any senator within the chamber who has not voted shall vote prior to the verification of the roll.

Rule [99.] 100. A roll call vote of the senate shall be taken upon any question at the request of five senators.

Rule [100.] 101. All senate committees shall meet on call of the chairman and the regular meetings of the committees shall be held at the times and places designated by the Committee on Administration.

Rule [101.] 102. Public introduction of guests shall not be allowed in the Senate Chamber during the last ten calendar days of the session. At other times, the introduction of guests shall be the order of business at the beginning of each daily meeting of the Senate and immediately prior to daily adjournment.

[Rule 102. A member of the Senate may accept meals, food, beverage or other gifts from a legislative lobbyist or the lobbyist's principal as defined in section 105.470. (4) (a), RSMo, if any single item accepted has a value of less than fifty dollars, and all items accepted by any member in any calendar year from a lobbyist or lobbyist principal, as defined in section 105.4703. (4) (a), do not exceed a value of one hundred dollars in the aggregate.

This rule shall not apply to:

(1) The participation of members in activities authorized in Section 105.473.3 (2) (c), RSMo, or in caucuses approved by the Senate Ethics Committee, regardless of the aggregate value;

(2) The participation in seminars or meetings of national or regional associations when such participation and activities have been requested in writing and approved in advance by the Committee on Administration or participation in seminars or meetings of a state association or receipt of educational materials from a state association;

(3) The acceptance of meals, food or beverage or other gifts to be used for charitable purposes, as defined by law, and which are not consumed or used for the personal benefit of the member; or

(4) A member is within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity of the lobbyist with regard to any gift provided to the member by such lobbyist.

The provisions of this rule may be satisfied by reimbursing said lobbyist or lobbyist principal within thirty days of obtaining actual knowledge that reimbursement is necessary to meet the requirements of this rule.]"'; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED by the Senate of the Ninety-third General Assembly, First Regular Session, that the temporary rules adopted January 5, 2005, as amended on January 6, 2005, and as amended by this resolution hereby be adopted as the permanent rules of the Missouri Senate for the Ninety-third General Assembly.

The Director of Transportation, Pete Rahn, assumed the dais and delivered the State of Transportation Address to the Joint Assembly:

Pete Rahn

State of Transportation Address

Jefferson City, Missouri

February 2, 2005

Lt. Governor,

Mr. Speaker,

Mr. President Pro Tem,

Distinguished State Officials,

Members of the 93rd General Assembly, Members of the Missouri Highways and Transportation Commission, and Citizens of Missouri:

Transportation is vital to the great state of Missouri. I'm sure you're impressed that I have figured that out in just four and a half short months.

Transportation allows the lifeblood of commerce to flow to every extremity of America and the world.

- It accounts for 11 percent of our nation's Gross Domestic Product - second only to health care.
- U.S. households spend up to 19 percent of their income on transportation - second only to housing.
- Nine cents of every dollar spent by consumers on manufactured goods is for transportation.
- 14 cents of every dollar spent by consumers on agricultural products is for transportation.

Unfortunately, the factors that take a toll on this essential system keep increasing. And it's important to note, our highways and even the Interstates were never designed to accommodate the types and volumes of traffic they encounter today.

- Large trucks on our highways increased by 132 percent between 1990 and 2000.

- The growth of "just-in-time inventory" with its dependence on rapid shipping will cause freight tonnage on our highways to increase by 70 percent in the next 15 years.
- International trade, which obviously depends on transportation infrastructure, grew from 900 billion dollars in 1990 to 2.2 trillion dollars in 2000.
- The average American spends 443 hours annually behind the wheel of an automobile.

Nationally, these things have stretched our transportation system to its limit.

- 46 percent of our National Highway System and 90 percent of our urban interstates will be beyond capacity by 2020.
- Congestion in our urban areas accounts for 4.5 billion hours of delay and 6.8 billion gallons of wasted fuel every year.

So, what about Missouri?

- We have the nation's third worst pavement conditions.
- Of Missouri's major highways, 54 percent of the pavement is in fair to poor condition.
- We are fourth in the nation in the number of deficient bridges on our system.
- Additionally, I-70 is in a state of near crisis. I-70, now almost 50 years old, was designed for a 20-year lifespan.
- This problem promises to get worse. Traffic on I-70 is expected to double by the year 2030.
- Meanwhile, I-44 is an I-70 just waiting to happen. We observe many of the same problems on this vital interstate as on I-70.

These troubling conditions are easy to understand when you consider that:

- We have the seventh largest highway system in the country.
- In fact, you could combine all of the state highways in Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas and it still would not equal the size of Missouri's system.
- Yet we are 42nd in the amount of money we spend on that system per mile.
- Of the eight states surrounding Missouri, only Arkansas spends less per mile of highway than we do.
- Our fuel tax is tied for the 10th lowest compared to all other states.
- In fact, our fuel tax of 17 cents -adjusted for inflation - is worth just over 8 cents today in purchasing power.
- For example, the first fuel tax from 1924 of 2 cents would have to be 21 cents today to buy as much.
- At the same time, we rank seventh in the number of bridges on our state system -- more than 10,000.
- And we are first in the nation when it comes to major river bridges. In fact, you could combine about 25 other states and they still wouldn't have as many as us.
- Additionally, Missouri is 15th in the number of vehicle miles traveled with more than 68 billion per year.

We certainly face a challenge, but I know that together we can meet it. The importance of transportation to Missouri is too great not to act. If transportation allows the lifeblood of commerce to flow, then Missouri, at the center of the world's largest economy, should be the heart pumping that blood to every part of the world resulting in economic prosperity right here at home.

Fellow Missourians, our state transportation system is deficient, but your state transportation department is committed to fixing it. We are energized by an optimistic vision for the future. Your MoDOT today is a vibrant agency that cares deeply about the people we serve. We have challenged and empowered every employee to continuously improve the level of service each provides to every Missourian.

I can tell you, the most effective ideas for improving this department will come from the collaboration of our entire transportation team. I want the people closest to the problems to be the ones to solve them because they want to, not because they were told to. Every crew worker who wields a shovel, every engineer who picks up a set of plans and every clerk who works at a computer should believe they "own" their job.

Authority to make necessary changes and improvements will not be concentrated here in Jefferson City. It will be dispersed to every corner of this great state. This approach is commonly referred to as decentralization. I call it common sense.

With this empowerment will come a new kind of accountability. A new kind of credibility. A new kind of state agency.

We will be a model for what today's state government should be - efficient, streamlined, forward-thinking, results-driven and customer-oriented. I have heard many of you say that you have seen a lot of improvement in MoDOT over the past few years. To that we say, "Thank you, but you ain't seen nothin' yet."

We will be a shining star in your state government galaxy.

Now, I know what you're thinking, "this is the show-me state. You're going to have to show us." Well, we intend to. We will be a transparent organization. You will see what we do well. You will see what we don't do so well and you will see what we do to get better.

MoDOT will be an open house. Our walls will be solid, but you will be able to see everything we do. Information about how we spend your money, our goals for improving transportation and our progress toward these goals will be distributed to statewide officials, lawmakers, the media and anyone else who wants it.

Plus, this information will be made available on our Internet site for the whole worldwide web to see. By conducting business in full view of the taxpayers of this state, we will encourage all Missourians to hold us accountable and to propose transportation solutions.

Our transparent house, however, will not be fragile. It will not be built on the shifting sands of promises we can't deliver or commitments we can't keep. It will be built on the solid rock of sound business practices, wise use of taxpayer dollars and extensive public input. MoDOT's house will be strong!

And, since you don't build a house starting with the top floor, the foundation of our house will be the results we deliver and the performance measures we track, which will produce an unparalleled level of accountability.

Last year from this dais, many of you heard that a new day had dawned at MoDOT. This year I reaffirm that statement. Morning has broken. The sun is rising on our transportation horizon. And thousands of rays of sunlight in the form of MoDOT employees and our citizen-partners are illuminating the morning sky with a message of cooperation and progress.

Ladies and gentleman, can you tell that I am thrilled to be your director of transportation and to have the opportunity to address you today? I am thrilled to call myself a Missourian. I am thrilled to work with such dedicated public servants. And I am thrilled at the possibilities of our transportation future.

And, it really is an exciting time for transportation in Missouri. On November 2, 2004, four out of five voters in this state said they wanted their roads fixed and they trusted MoDOT to do it.

Since then we've worked extremely hard to identify needs and get projects under contract. Today, we're saying to Missourians that MoDOT is ready to deliver, and the improvements will be noticeable and quick.

We come to you with a shared vision of smoother, safer roads that will be built sooner. Missourians have sent a clear message that they want smoother, safer highways. Today, we send a clear message that smoother, safer highways are exactly what they will get.

Therefore, we have embarked on an ambitious initiative for our transportation future -- ambitious to the tune of more than 1.7 billion dollars in vital improvements.

360 million dollars will fund 177 projects in the Smooth Roads Initiative - the first element of our Smoother, Safer, Sooner plan. This initiative will provide 2,200 miles of better pavement for a smoother drive, as well as a brighter, more visible roadway to help on stormy nights, and safer shoulders with rumble strips, all by the end of 2007. Today, three quarters of those miles are in fair to poor condition.

The highway miles included in the Smooth Roads Initiative account for 60 percent of all traffic on the state system. These roads include interstates, major highways in the metropolitan areas and highway corridors connecting smaller towns throughout our state. 86 percent of Missouri's population lives within 10 miles of these roads.

Amendment 3 will also allow for bond financing to accelerate more than 430 million dollars in high-priority construction projects. These 55 projects, which comprise the second element of the Smoother, Safer, Sooner program, were already scheduled to begin in the next five years, but work can now begin much sooner - several years sooner, in many cases. Speeding up these projects will have an enormously positive impact on the safety and economic well being of our citizens.

Examples of major projects to be built sooner include:

- Rehabilitation of the Route 67 Missouri River Bridge crossing in St. Louis
- Major congestion relief work on the Triangle in Kansas City
- Completion of Route 61 four laning in northeast Missouri
- And completion of the four-lane Route 71 corridor south of Joplin

The third element of Amendment 3 will be determined later this spring after working with our planning partners statewide, when 1.3 billion dollars in additional bond-financed projects will be announced. These will be new projects not currently in our five-year plan. Our goal is to invest these funds in projects that will have a substantial impact on our overall transportation system.

And I want to stress--every dollar of Amendment 3 revenues will go to our roads. No new buildings. No added personnel.

Our plans do not center solely on Amendment 3 funding, however.

We support efforts to allocate more money for other transportation modes such as aviation, rail, waterways and public transit. Legislation is expected to be introduced to direct the sales taxes that highway construction contractors are currently paying, and which amount to a mini-diversion, toward multi-modal services.

The multi-modal plan would allow us to improve our airports that are key to economic development throughout this state. It would increase access to Missouri's railroads and river barges. And it would allow for more public transportation options in both our large cities and small towns by building facilities and helping to match Federal dollars for capital equipment purchases.

Our plan is a total transportation plan. It is ambitious, but we are ambitious. We will confront the realities of the present and anticipate the challenges of the future. We will seek to unite based on the priorities of where we live, which is in Missouri. We will listen to all Missourians and we will seek to do what is best for all of Missouri.

MoDOT is excited about the opportunity to better serve all Missourians. I see excitement within MoDOT that I've been told has not existed for many years. We are excited to be able to do the things we like to do - fix our roads, help people and, ultimately, save lives.

We like to build roads. We like to delight our customers with smooth roadways, four-lane highways, brighter striping, better signs, wider shoulders and lots of other improvements.

Amendment 3 will help, but it will not solve all our problems. In fact, the money from Amendment 3 will only move us from 44th lowest nationally in revenue per mile to 42nd lowest. That is not a big jump. We will, however, do more with that two spot increase than you would have ever thought.

You will see the results. You will feel the results. And you will hear about the results from your constituents who will be confident that their tax dollars are going toward their intended purpose - better highways.

We, at MoDOT, also like to help people. Martin Luther King, Jr., often told the story of two travelers journeying down a dangerous road. Seeing a man needing help, the first traveler said, "What will happen to me if I stop and help the man in need?" The second traveler said, "What will happen to the man in need if I do not stop to help?"

Many MoDOT employees have decided to stop and help, going above and beyond the call of duty to help their fellow Missourians. · When an MFA propane truck overturned on Route O in Johnson County, three of your MoDOT Good Samaritans, Jesse Dunkle, Brian Terrell and Loren Dickmeier, pulled the driver from his burning truck, called 911 and flagged traffic around the crash.

· When MoDOT employee Larry Boesch found a dog that had been hit by a car alongside I-435 near Smithville, he took off the dog's collar, called its veterinarian and gave a family with two young children the opportunity to say "good-bye" to their beloved friend named "Rocket".

· When MoDOT Waterways Program Manager Sherrie Martin found out that the executive director of the New Madrid Port Authority had to take time off because of serious health issues, she traveled to southeast Missouri and virtually assumed her customer's job as executive director of the Port Authority ensuring that vital projects were completed.

· And when the President of the United States called upon the men and women of the Missouri National Guard to aid in bringing freedom to Iraq, MoDOT employees answered the call. Matt Bacon used his MoDOT training to help rebuild roads and infrastructure in the war torn country. Meanwhile, Bruce Pettus utilized his experience with St. Louis Motorist Assist and incident management to invent a rear armor guard for Humvees that is now standard on all such vehicles sent to Iraq.

Matt, Bruce and all the people I mentioned who cared enough to help are here today. I ask them to stand and receive the recognition they deserve.

MoDOT wants to "stop and help" even more along the path. Because of this, it is vital we seek new ways to save more lives. Each year we lose 1,200 mothers, fathers, sons and daughters on Missouri's roads. Something must be done.

One thousand two hundred people killed on our highways is the equivalent of the entire population of communities like Mound City or Lincoln, or New Franklin, or Pasadena Hills or Puxico. Additionally, 69,000 people are injured in traffic crashes every year. That is roughly equivalent to the populations of Cass, or Cape Girardeau or Cole Counties. Something must be done.

Far too many of those who die on our highways are our young people. In 2004, 132 drivers under the age of 21 were killed on Missouri's roadways. These youths accounted for nearly 30 percent of all crashes. Their average age was 17.9 years old. Clearly. Urgently. Something must be done.

Mother's Against Drunk Driving, Triple A, SAFE KIDS St. Louis, the Missouri Association of Insurance Agents, the safety Council of the Ozarks and numerous other organizations know exactly what that something is. On their behalf, on behalf of all those killed or injured on our roadways and on behalf of too many children whose parents never come home again-- we plead to you to enact a primary seat belt law this year. We haven't a moment to lose because we have already lost too many Missourians.

We have the opportunity to save at least 90 lives every year on the highways of Missouri. A law that allows law enforcement officers to simply enforce our existing seat belt law could do exactly that. I realize that many believe this is an issue of individual choice. I would suggest that is not the issue at all. State law already says that everyone must wear a seatbelt. The question now is "Will we allow our law enforcement officers to enforce the law?"

It makes sense to enact a primary safety belt law. It is the most cost effective way to save lives that Missouri has available. It won't cost a dime more in taxpayer money. However, the cost of inaction is far too high. Let's start saving those lives this year.

In his Inaugural Address, Governor Matt Blunt said, "...we will be bold. We will be willing to experiment. We will not fear failure. We will bear setbacks with resolve and press forward with determined innovation. We will attack problems with the deliberation that accompanies this great responsibility and with the energy necessary to build a better Missouri."

MoDOT is up to Governor Blunt's challenge. We will be bold. We will be willing to experiment. We will not fear failure. We will be determined. We will attack problems and we will be energetic. We are committed to going from being a good organization to being a great organization.

We cannot, however, make our transportation system great without all of you. Elected officials, private citizens and anyone else who cares about building a better Missouri will have a seat at the transportation table. We will seek your opinions like never before because your MoDOT knows that we don't have all the answers. We also know that many of the best ideas come from the people we serve.

I was once told of an exchange between Nelson Mandela when he was President of South Africa and the international press corps at a news conference in Johannesburg. A young reporter asked Mandela how he could justify having spent 27 years in prison in support of an idea no one thought could become a reality. Mandela smiled and said his mother had told him that there were three kinds of people in the world:

- The first left nothing behind, not even their name, when they departed
- The second left only the bad things they had done
- And the third left the world a little better off.

Nelson Mandela then asked, "How could I let my mother down?"

Well, I don't think any of us want to let our mothers down!

We are committed to achieving goals that many think will never become reality, but together we can leave our part of the world...a little better off.

As famous Missourian Walt Disney said, "It's kinda fun to do the impossible."

Alone, MoDOT cannot make our transportation system great, but, together, we can.

Together, we can save lives on our highways.

Together, we can make our roadways better.

Together, we can encourage economic prosperity.

Together, we can provide greater transportation services in every part of this state.

Together, we can be great.

Thank you. May God bless America, may God bless Missouri and may God bless your travels.

We know that whatever this week brings, You are with us and because You are, we can trust Your promise. Amend Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 270, Page 25, Section 30.860, Line 80, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“Section 1. 1. There is hereby created in the state treasury the “State Treasurer’s General Operations Fund” which shall receive deposits, make disbursements and be administered in compliance with the provisions of this section.

2. Subject to appropriation, moneys in the state treasurer’s general operations fund shall be used solely to pay for personal service, equipment and other expenses of the state treasurer related to the state treasurer’s constitutional and statutory responsibilities, exclusive of any personal service, equipment and other expenses attributable to positions wholly dedicated to the functions described in chapter 447, RSMo. The commissioner of administration shall review and approve all requests of the state treasurer of disbursements from the state treasurer’s general operations fund for compliance with the provisions of this section. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent the general assembly from making appropriations to the state treasurer from other permissible sources.

3. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, moneys shall be deposited in the state treasurer’s general operations fund and administered in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) On a daily basis, the state treasurer shall apportion any interest or other increment derived from the investment of funds in an amount proportionate to the average daily balance of funds in the state treasury. The state treasurer shall use a method in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in apportioning and distributing that interest or increment. Prior to distributing that interest or increment, the state treasurer shall deduct the costs incurred by the state treasurer in administering this chapter in proportion to the average daily balance of the amounts deposited to each fund in the state treasury. The state treasurer shall then deposit the identified portion of the daily interest receipts in the “State Treasurer’s General Operations Fund”. All other remaining interest received on the investment of state funds shall be allocated and deposited to funds within the state treasury as required by law.

(2) The total costs for personal service, equipment and other expenses of the state treasurer related to the state treasurer’s constitutional and statutory responsibilities, exclusive of any personal service, equipment and other expenses attributable to positions wholly dedicated to the functions described in chapter 447, RSMo, and any banking fees and other banking-related costs, shall not exceed ten basis points, or one-tenth of one percent, of the total of the average daily fund balance of funds within the state treasury.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, moneys in the “State Treasurer’s General Operations Fund” shall not lapse to the general revenue fund at the end of the biennium unless and only to the extent to which the amount in the fund exceeds the annual appropriations from the fund for the current fiscal year.

Section B. Because of the need to provide consistent funding to the State Treasurer’s Office to allow the office’s primary functions to proceed in a timely and efficient manner, section A of this act is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, welfare, peace and safety, and is hereby declared to be an emergency act within the meaning of the constitution, and section A of this act shall be in full force and effect upon its passage and approval.”.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 448

WHEREAS, the state of Missouri; the residents of its cities, towns, and communities; and electric power providers all have a shared interest in improving air quality and assuring compliance with our nation's air quality goals; and

WHEREAS, electric power providers have significantly reduced air emissions, but additional reductions will help address these air quality goals; and

WHEREAS, the Clean Air Act provides for continued reductions in emissions of sulfur dioxide (SO₂), nitrogen oxides (NO_x) and mercury from electric power facilities with numerous regulatory decisions mandated over the next two decades that will have unpredictable outcomes; and

WHEREAS, implementation of the Clean Air Act's multiple, overlapping requirements could be streamlined to facilitate greater, more efficient, and more certain emission reductions that would reduce litigation that often causes significant delays in achieving air quality goals; and

WHEREAS, a new federal emission reduction program could help to resolve regional and national air quality challenges, interstate environmental conflicts, and reduce inconsistencies between state programs; and

WHEREAS, the implications of any emission reduction programs on consumer energy prices and electric power reliability must be factored into policy decisions; and

WHEREAS, the quality of life in Missouri depends on a reliable supply of electric power; and

WHEREAS, Missouri's economic vitality is linked to the availability of affordable supplies of electric power; and

WHEREAS, the amount of time necessary for emission reduction-related litigation often reduces the amount of time available for the installation of emission-reduction technologies and increases of the costs of compliance, which eventually are passed on to consumers of electric power; and

WHEREAS, an opportunity (in the form of the Clear Skies Act) exists to adopt a federal, integrated strategy that establishes aggressive, but reasonable, time frames and reduction targets for the nation's three highest priority electric power plant emissions – nitrogen oxides (NO_x), sulfur dioxide (SO₂), and mercury; and

WHEREAS, such a multi-emission strategy will minimize interstate regulatory compliance conflicts, lessen the need for costly, time-consuming litigation, allow for the design and deployment of more cost-effective technologies, and continue the nation's progress for reducing potentially harmful emissions in as cost-effective manner as possible without negatively impacting the reliability of the nation's electric power supplies:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Third General Assembly, First Regular Session, urge the United States Congress to adopt forthwith multi-emission legislation that will provide reduction targets for (NO_x), (SO₂), and mercury at reasonable and appropriate levels and over periods of time that will provide certainty, stability, and flexibility to electric power generators in meeting their air quality targets while maintaining electric power reliability, availability, and affordability; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that reductions under such a program should be achieved using an emissions cap-and-trade approach patterned after the successful Clean Air Act acid rain program; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the ongoing development of combined heat and power units be encouraged by exempting energy efficient and low-emitting units from multi-emission legislation and allowing them to opt in to the program; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that such a program should streamline Clean Air Act provisions given that (SO₂), (NO_x), and mercury emissions caps will substantially reduce the amount of emissions from electric power facilities; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that to the maximum extent possible, enforcement of such a program should be delegated to the states; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we support the Clear Skies Act provided that the final version does not contain a historical cap on carbon dioxide emissions; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the President of the United States Senate, each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation, and the Governor of Missouri.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Senators Mayer, Shields, Klindt, Dougherty, Kennedy and Ridgeway offered the following concurrent resolution:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 5

WHEREAS, following breast cancer, cervical cancer is the second most common cancer in women worldwide; and

WHEREAS, according to federal governmental statistics, cervical cancer is the third most common gynecological cancer among American women, with approximately 12,200 new cases diagnosed annually, 4,100 of which result in fatalities; and

WHEREAS, with regular and accurate screening, cervical cancer is highly preventable; widespread screening programs have helped to reduce death rates of women from cervical cancer, but women are still dying even with such advanced medical techniques and evaluative procedures; and

WHEREAS, cervical cancer cases in the United States are generally attributed to a lack of education, a reduction of access available to regular cervical cancer screening, and a lack of screening accuracy; and

WHEREAS, experience shows that increasing cervical cancer awareness among women, especially the underserved women within our state, significantly reduces the probability of mortality; and

WHEREAS, cervical cancer disproportionately affects minority women and women with lower incomes because they are less likely to have access to routine screening; and

WHEREAS, approximately half of all cervical cancer cases are in women who have never been screened, and ten percent of cases are in women who have not been screened within the last five years; and

WHEREAS, the median age of cervical cancer patients at diagnosis is 47 years, the youngest median age for all female reproductive cancers; and

WHEREAS, new screening technologies, including FDA-approved testing for human papillomavirus, which is the cause of virtually all cervical cancers, offer new opportunities to finally eliminate this potentially deadly disease through early identification of women at increased risk; and

WHEREAS, leading medical organizations, including the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, the American Cancer Society, and the Association of Reproductive Health Professionals, have recently updated their screening guidelines to include FDA-approved testing for the human papillomavirus; and

WHEREAS, women are entitled to proper cervical cancer information, so that they can be empowered to make informed healthcare decisions, and access to routine screening, including the most accurate methods available; and

WHEREAS, the Missouri General Assembly recognizes that through education and screening, women can lower their likelihood for developing cervical cancer, and that through early detection, cervical cancer can be successfully treated after it develops:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Third General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby supports the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services and the Missouri Cancer Consortium in taking the lead in formulating the Comprehensive Cancer Action Plan for Missouri, including the review of data regarding cervical cancer and human papillomavirus of women in Missouri, evaluating current methods used to provide women with information regarding cervical cancer, access to regular screening, and options for increasing screening accuracy. The Missouri General Assembly supports the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services and the Missouri Cancer Consortium in the identification of pockets of need, priority strategies, and new technologies, including newly introduced therapies and preventive vaccines which are effective in preventing and controlling cervical cancer; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Comprehensive Cancer Action Plan for Missouri, which serves as a nationwide model of effective cancer control strategies, be presented yearly to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, President Pro Tem of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and to be posted on the Missouri state website homepage; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Governor of Missouri, the Director of the Department of Health and Senior Services and the Director of the Missouri Cancer Consortium.

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

THIRTIETH DAY—MONDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 2005

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Senator Scott in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“I sought the Lord and he answered me, and delivered me from all my fears.” (Psalm 34:4)

Dear God, violence continues throughout our world and death continues to be ever present in the news. We can so easily become discouraged and live in a state of fear but help us to draw closer to You and know that Your love casts out all fears. Fill us with unwavering faith and guide our footsteps so we may confront those who would bring harm to our people. And Lord, be ever present and bring comfort to those who are in harms way and especially to the families that have lost those they love. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

WHEREAS, the center will be located on the Chesterfield, Missouri, campus of Logan College, with research operations conducted by the Samuelli Institute, Alexandria, Virginia; and

WHEREAS, the center will facilitate development of research capacity in the area of musculoskeletal conditions by linking scientists at chiropractic educational institutions with scientists in the military and at the Samuelli Institute; and

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

THIRTY-SECOND DAY—WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2, 2005

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“For you have not received the spirit of bondage, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.” (Romans 8:5)

Heavenly Father let us never be afraid to kneel before You and confess our need of Your help and forgiveness. In times of sorrow and hurts, troubles and heartaches and especially those times we have failed You, help us to remember that You are truly our Father and we are Your children. Let us with boldness and confidence ask as dear children to trust always in Your love and mercy and find grace in times of need. And may we love You with childlike affection all the days of our lives. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

“386.390. 1. Complaint may be made by the commission of its own motion, or by the public counsel or any corporation or person, chamber of commerce, board of trade, or any civic, commercial, mercantile, traffic, agricultural or manufacturing association or organization, or any body politic or municipal corporation, by petition or complaint in writing, alleging that a public utility’s rates are excessive, or otherwise setting forth any act or thing done or omitted to be done by any corporation, person or public utility, including any rule, regulation or charge heretofore established or fixed by or for any corporation, person or public utility, in violation, or claimed to be in violation, of any provision of law, or of any rule or order or decision of the commission[; provided, that no complaint shall be entertained by the commission, except upon its own motion, as to the reasonableness of any rates or charges of any gas, electrical, water, sewer, or telephone corporation, unless the same be signed by the public counsel or the mayor or the president or chairman of the board of aldermen or a majority of the council, commission or other legislative body of any city, town, village or county, within which the alleged violation occurred, or not less than twenty-five consumers or purchasers, or prospective consumers or purchasers, of such gas, electricity, water, sewer or telephone service].

2. All matters upon which complaint may be founded may be joined in one hearing, and no motion shall be entertained against a complaint for misjoinder of causes of action or grievances or misjoinder or nonjoinder of parties; and in any review by the courts of orders or decisions of the commission the same rule shall apply with regard to the joinder of causes and parties as herein provided.

3. The commission shall not be required to dismiss any complaint because of the absence of direct damage to the complainant. Upon the filing of a complaint, the commission shall cause a copy thereof to be served upon the public utility, corporation or person complained of.

4. Service in all hearings, investigations and proceedings pending before the commission may be made upon any person upon whom summons may be served in accordance with the provisions of the code of civil procedure of this state, and may be made personally or by mailing in a sealed envelope with postage prepaid.

5. The commission shall fix the time when and the place where a hearing will be had upon the complaint and shall serve notice thereof, not less than ten days before the time set for such hearing, unless the commission shall find that the public necessity requires that such hearing be held at an earlier date.

6. If the complaint alleges that a public utility's rates are excessive, the public utility shall, within thirty days or such lesser time as may be prescribed by the commission, file a bond or undertaking approved by the commission conditioned upon the refund in a manner prescribed by the commission of amounts collected after the date of filing of the petition in excess of rates and charges finally determined by the commission to be lawful, with interest thereon at the legal rate. If, upon hearing, the commission finds that the public utility's rates are unlawful, the commission shall order a refund, with interest, at the legal rate of amounts collected after the date of filing of the petition that are determined to be in excess of the amounts which would have been collected under the rates finally approved. In any hearing upon a complaint brought under this subsection, the complainant or complainants shall have the obligation to present evidence to preliminarily support the alleged overcharge; provided, however, that the burden of proof to show that the existing rate or the rate complained against is just and reasonable at all times shall be upon the public utility.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“The Lord...declares: ‘Those who honor me I will honor, and those who despise me shall be treated with contempt.’” (1 Samuel 2:30)

Almighty God, help us to live each day honoring You our God and may we find ways of expressing our thankfulness in the way we act and the things we accomplish, the way we treat others and the way we express love to those You have given us to love. And may we find joy in Your presence this day and weekend as we find ourselves in our communities of faith, singing Your praise and commending our prayers before You. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY—MONDAY, MARCH 7, 2005

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Senator Koster in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“Do not fear the reproach of others, and do not be dismayed when they revile you.” (Isaiah 51:7)

Dear Lord, we often encounter so many who think they know better than we do and when we don’t agree with them they can be difficult and nasty to deal with, but we pray, that drawing from Your strength and wisdom, we will do and say the things that must be done and said. So encourage us in our serving and help us be faithful and unafraid as we go about what we have been called by You to do. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

THIRTY-FIFTH DAY—TUESDAY, MARCH 8, 2005

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Senator Scott in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

About prayer, Evelyn Underhill wrote: “In it the soul feeds upon God. Draws new vitality from the source of all life. The citizen who is so strengthened is worth more to this state than the one whose roots do not strike deep into eternity.”

Gracious God, as we are at the mid point of our work here help us to spend some time in silence with You, our God. Let our “roots strike deep” into You so we too may be of greater worth to this State and the people we serve. And may we gain strength for the many tasks still ahead of us. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Senators Bray, Dougherty, Wheeler, Green, Coleman, Days, Wilson, Graham, Kennedy and Callahan offered the following concurrent resolution:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 9

WHEREAS, the State of Missouri recognizes that over 1,033,886 residents of all ages in this state receive guaranteed Social Security benefits which allow them to live without sinking into poverty or suffering from a diminished quality of life because of retirement, disability, or the death of a parent or spouse; and

WHEREAS, Social Security protects Missourians by providing guaranteed benefits not only for retirees, but also for 184,858 disabled workers and their families, as well as for almost 90,000 children in our state; and

WHEREAS, Social Security is particularly critical to the 420,699 Missouri women who receive benefits since women typically live longer, earn less money, and generally spend less time in the labor force due to child care responsibilities; and

WHEREAS, Social Security is a progressive program that continues to pay guaranteed benefits for the duration of the recipients' lifetimes, that is indexed for inflation, that functions with extreme efficiency, and that currently operates with a surplus; and

WHEREAS, the nonpartisan Congressional Budget Office (CBO) predicts that there will be no shortfall until 2052, when Social Security will be able to pay only 80% of recipients' benefits due to insufficient revenue from payroll tax; and

WHEREAS, in the past, the Social Security Trust Fund has encountered similar challenges, including larger projected shortfalls during the 1980's, which were resolved without privatization schemes and without reducing guaranteed benefits for the elderly, disabled, and children; and

WHEREAS, the Bush Administration's proposals to partially privatize Social Security through the creation of private accounts cannot guarantee returns that equal or exceed recipients' guaranteed benefits through the current Social Security system; and

WHEREAS, the creation of such a private accounts system would entail a massive cost to our country, adding an estimated $2 trillion to our national deficit which would take an estimated 60 years to pay back; and

WHEREAS, future Social Security recipients would also pay a much higher cost for private accounts than for the guaranteed benefits current recipients receive since the current system spends just 0.6 cents of every dollar on administrative costs while a private accounts system would waste at least 5 cents of every dollar; and

WHEREAS, under President Bush's proposal, guaranteed Social Security protections to the elderly, disabled, survivors, and children will gradually erode for future generations driving millions of Americans into poverty and destroying the most successful social insurance program ever created in the United States:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Third General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby call upon the Missouri Congressional Delegation to recognize the unique features of Social Security: guaranteed benefits, protection from market fluctuations, inflation indexing, lifelong protection in case of disability, death of a spouse or parent, and insufficient retirement income, progressive benefits that are linked to earnings and that cannot lose value over the recipient's lifetime; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Missouri General Assembly calls upon the Missouri Congressional Delegation to oppose restructuring the Social Security Trust Fund to create private accounts that reduce guaranteed benefits for hundreds of thousands of Missourians, especially women and children who will be disproportionately affected and who depend on Social Security for their survival and well-being; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for President George W. Bush, the members of the Missouri Congressional Delegation, and Governor Matt Blunt.

Senator Scott offered the following concurrent resolution:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 10

WHEREAS, the inconsistent wireless telecommunication service throughout rural areas of the state provides for an erratic coverage area for rural customers; and

WHEREAS, to make available more dependable wireless telecommunication service to rural customers of this state, telecommunication service providers must have access to support aimed at providing such service to higher cost areas; and

WHEREAS, to enable wireless telecommunication providers to invest in infrastructure to better serve the rural customers of this state, the Missouri legislature seeks to more easily certify telecommunication service providers as eligible telecommunication carriers thereby subjecting those service providers to the universal service fund:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Third General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby urge the public service commission to adopt rules governing the application process by which telecommunication providers can be certified as "eligible telecommunications carriers" and who, in turn, can be subject to universal service fund support. The rules adopted by the Commission shall utilize the minimum requirements for eligibility adopted and published by the Federal Communications Commission, consistent with the recommendations of the Federal-State Joint Board on Universal Service for eligibility; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the members of the Public Service Commission.

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Senator Koster in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“If we really want to pray, we have to give time to learning its lessons.” (Mother Mary Clare)

Gracious God, in the midst of this time called Lent, we are particularly mindful of the time in prayer we ought to spend with You. But, let us Lord, not only take the time to pray that is needed but let us discover ourselves as we truly are before You in our prayers and be able to mature and deepen our relationship with You. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Senator Green offered the following concurrent resolution:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 11

WHEREAS, more than two centuries ago, our founders envisioned a new nation, a land free from tyranny and filled with opportunity, prosperity, and liberty for all. Many Irish people, faced with severe hardship in their homeland, embraced the dream of a more promising future and left behind Ireland's shores, their families, and their friends for a new beginning in America. Each year during the month of March, we celebrate these courageous men and women of Ireland and remember with pride their many contributions to our nation; and

WHEREAS, with strength, courage, wit, and creativity, Irish Americans have flourished in our diverse nation of immigrants. Writers such as Flannery O'Connor and Eugene O'Neill have transformed our literature; entrepreneurs like Henry Ford helped revolutionize American industry; performers such as Gregory Peck and Helen Hayes have enriched the arts; patriots such as Audie Murphy, our most decorated soldier of World War II, redefined the meaning of courage; and social reformers such as suffragist Leonora Barry and labor organizer Mary Kenney O'Sullivan fought for the rights of others. Generations of Irish Americans have worked alongside their fellow Americans to build a more perfect union, and America is a stronger nation because of them; and

WHEREAS, during his visit to Ireland in 1963, President Kennedy reminded us that “our two nations, divided by distance, have been united by history”. Today, people on both sides of the Atlantic are united not only by history, but also once again by a dream of a better way of life. This month, as we celebrate Saint Patrick's Day and our shared heritage with Ireland, we remember as well our common love of liberty, commitment to progress, and quest for lasting peace, and we look toward a future as proud as our past; and

WHEREAS, 150 years ago, the blight that struck Ireland's potato crop (“the single root that changed the history of the world”), known as the Great Famine, caused 2,000,000 of Ireland's population to emigrate, mostly to America's shores, and in 1847 alone, 25,000 Irish immigrants arrived in Boston; by 1851, the end of the famine exodus, 1,712 emigrant ships had sailed up the Narrows into New York harbor, and during the “Great Hunger” (1845-1851) more people left Ireland than had emigrated in the previous 250 years; and

WHEREAS, within a few years of their arrival in the United States, these Irish immigrants took jobs as laborers, built railroads, canals, and schools, dedicated themselves to help build this nation, and this same legacy remains a part of today's American mainstream; and

WHEREAS, James Smith, George Taylor, Matthew Thornton, and Charles Thomson, four of the individuals who signed the Declaration of Independence, were Irish born and nine other signers were of Irish ancestry; more than 200 Irish-Americans have been awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor and 19 Presidents of the United States proudly claim Irish heritage, included among them, the first president, George Washington;

WHEREAS, the 44,000,000 Americans of Irish ancestry, like their forebearers, continue to enrich all aspects of life in the United States, in science, education, art, agriculture, business, industry, literature, music, athletics, military and governmental service.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Third General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, do hereby designate the month of March 2005 as Irish-American Heritage Month. The Governor is requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the state of Missouri to observe this month with appropriate ceremonies, programs, and activities; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed a copy of this resolution for the Governor of the state of Missouri.

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 393, Page 18, Section 537.067, Line 16 of said page, by striking "1."; and

Further amend said bill and section, Page 20, Lines 2 to 4 of said page, by striking all of the underlined language on said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "if the plaintiff is found to bear sixty percent or more of the fault, then the court shall enter a directed verdict for the defendant and such plaintiff shall recover no damages. If the plaintiff is found to bear less than sixty percent of the fault, then a defendant shall be jointly and severally liable for the amount of the compensatory damages and noneconomic damages portion of the judgment rendered against defendants if such defendant is found to bear fifteen percent or more of fault. A defendant may not be jointly and severally liable for more than the percentage of punitive damages for which fault is attributed to such defendant by the trier of fact.”; and

Further amend said bill, Page 30, Section 538.229, Line 4 of said page, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“538.230. 1. In any action against a health care provider for damages for personal injury or death on account of the rendering of or failure to render health care services where fault is apportioned among the parties and persons released pursuant to subsection 3 of this section, the court, unless otherwise agreed by all the parties, shall instruct the jury to apportion fault among such persons and parties, or the court, if there is no jury, shall make findings, indicating the percentage of total fault of all the parties to each claim that is allocated to each party and person who has been released from liability under subsection 3 of this section.

2. The court shall determine the award of damages to each plaintiff in accordance with the findings, subject to any reduction under subsection 3 of this section and enter judgment against each party liable on the basis of the rules of joint and several liability. However, notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, any defendant against whom an award of damages is made shall be jointly liable only with those defendants whose apportioned percentage of fault is [equal to or] less than such defendant.

3. Any release, covenant not to sue, or similar agreement entered into by a claimant and a person or entity against which a claim is asserted arising out of the alleged transaction which is the basis for plaintiff's cause of action, whether actually made a party to the action or not, discharges that person or entity from all liability for contribution or indemnity but it does not discharge other persons or entities liable upon such claim unless it so provides. However, the claim of the releasing person against other persons or entities is reduced by the amount of the released persons' or entities' equitable share of the total obligation imposed by the court pursuant to a full apportionment of fault under this section as though there had been no release.”; and “135.163. 1. For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2006, in order to encourage the retention of physicians and other health care providers in this state, an eligible taxpayer shall be allowed a credit not to exceed fifteen thousand dollars per eligible taxpayer against the tax otherwise due pursuant to chapter 143, RSMo, not including sections 143.191 to 143.265, RSMo, in an amount equal to fifteen percent of the increase in amount paid by an eligible taxpayer for medical malpractice insurance premiums in the aggregate from one policy period to the next immediate policy period. For purposes of this section, the base policy period for calculation of the credit shall be the medical malpractice insurance policy in effect on August 28, 2005.

2. The tax credit allowed by this section shall be claimed by the taxpayer at the time such taxpayer files a return. Any amount of tax credit which exceeds the tax due shall be carried over to any of the next five subsequent taxable years, but shall not be refunded and shall not be transferable.

3. The director of the department of insurance and the director of the department of revenue shall jointly administer the tax credit authorized by this section. The director of the department of insurance shall enact procedures to verify the amount of the allowable credit and shall issue a certificate to each eligible taxpayer that certifies the amount of the allowable credit. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2005, shall be invalid and void.

4. The tax credits issued pursuant to this section shall not exceed a total for all tax credits issued of fifteen million dollars per fiscal year.”; and

Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section 355.176, Line 14 of said page, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“379.316. 1. Section 379.017 and sections 379.316 to 379.361 apply to insurance companies incorporated pursuant to sections 379.035 to 379.355, section 379.080, sections 379.060 to 379.075, sections 379.085 to 379.095, sections 379.205 to 379.310, and to insurance companies of a similar type incorporated pursuant to the laws of any other state of the United States, and alien insurers licensed to do business in this state, which transact fire and allied lines, marine and inland marine insurance, to any and all combinations of the foregoing or parts thereof, and to the combination of fire insurance with other types of insurance within one policy form at a single premium, on risks or operations in this state, except:

- (3) Insurance against loss or damage to aircraft;
- (4) All forms of motor vehicle insurance; and
- (5) All forms of life, accident and health, [and] workers' compensation insurance, and medical malpractice liability insurance.

2. Inland marine insurance shall be deemed to include insurance now or hereafter defined by statute, or by interpretation thereof, or if not so defined or interpreted, by ruling of the director, or as established by general custom of the business, as inland marine insurance.

3. Commercial property and commercial casualty insurance policies are subject to rate and form filing requirements as provided in section 379.321.

383.112. Any insurer or self-insured health care provider that fails to timely report claims information as required by sections 383.100 to 383.125 shall be subject to the provisions of section 374.215, RSMo.

383.150. As used in sections 383.150 to 383.195, the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Association" [means], the joint underwriting association established pursuant to the provisions of sections 383.150 to 383.195;

(2) "Competitive bidding process", a process under which the director seeks, and insurers may submit, rates at which insurers guarantee to provide medical malpractice liability insurance to any health care provider unable to obtain such insurance in the voluntary market;

(3) "Director" [means], the director of the department of insurance;

[(3)] (4) "Health care provider" includes physicians, dentists, clinical psychologists, pharmacists, optometrists, podiatrists, registered nurses, physicians' assistants, chiropractors, physical therapists, nurse anesthetists, anesthetists, emergency medical technicians, hospitals, nursing homes and extended care facilities; but shall not include any nursing service or nursing facility conducted by and for those who rely upon treatment by spiritual means alone in accordance with the creed or tenets of any well-recognized church or religious denomination;

[(4)] (5) "Medical malpractice insurance" [means], insurance coverage against the legal liability of the insured and against loss, damage, or expense incident to a claim arising out of the death or injury of any person as a result of the negligence or malpractice in rendering professional service by any health care provider;

383.151. When the department determines after a public hearing that medical malpractice liability insurance is not reasonably available for health care providers in the voluntary market, the director shall establish a method for providing such insurance to such health care providers. The director may:

(1) Establish a competitive bidding process under which insurers may submit rates at which they agree to insure such health care providers; or

(2) Establish any other method reasonably designed to provide insurance to such health care providers.

383.200. 1. As used in sections 383.200 to 383.225, the following terms mean:

(1) "Director", the same meaning as such term is defined in section 383.100;

(2) "Health care provider", the same meaning as such term is defined in section 383.100;

(3) "Insurer", an insurance company licensed in this state to write liability insurance, as described in section 379.010, RSMo;

(4) "Medical malpractice insurance", the same meaning as such term is defined in section 383.200.

2. The following standards and procedures shall apply to the making and use of rates pertaining to all classes of medical malpractice insurance:

(1) Rates shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. A rate is excessive if it is unreasonably high for the insurance provided. A rate is inadequate if it is unreasonably low for the insurance provided and continued use of it would endanger the solvency of the company. A rate is unfairly discriminatory if it does not reflect equitably differences in reasonably expected losses and expenses;

(2) (a) Every insurer that desires to increase a rate by less than fifteen percent shall file such rate, along with data supporting the rate change as prescribed by the director, no later than thirty days after such rate becomes effective. Filings under this paragraph shall not be subject to approval or disapproval by the director.

(b) Every insurer that desires to increase a rate by fifteen percent or more shall submit a complete rate application to the director. A complete rate application shall include all data supporting the proposed rate and such other information as the director may require. The applicant shall have the burden of proving that the requested rate change is justified and meets the requirements of this act.

(c) Every insurer that has filed a rate increase under paragraph (a) of this subdivision for two consecutive years and in the third year desires to file a rate increase which in the aggregate over the three-year period will equal or exceed a total rate increase of forty percent or more shall be required to submit a complete rate application under paragraph (b) of this subdivision.

(d) Every insurer that has not filed or had a rate increase approved for three consecutive years may file a rate increase in the fourth year in an amount not to exceed a twenty-five percent increase without being required to submit a complete rate application under paragraph (b) of this subdivision;

(3) The director of insurance shall promulgate rules setting forth standards that insurers shall adhere to in calculating their rates. Such rules shall:

(a) Establish a range within which an expected rate of return shall be presumed reasonable;

(b) Establish a range within which categories of expenses shall be presumed reasonable;

(c) Establish a range for the number of years of experience an insurer may consider in determining an appropriate loss development factor;

(d) Establish a range for the number of years of experience an insurer may consider in determining an appropriate trend factor;

(e) Establish a range for the number of years of experience an insurer may consider in determining an appropriate increased limits factor;

(f) Establish the proper weights to be given to different years of experience;

(g) Establish the extent to which an insurer may apply its subjective judgment in projecting past cost data into the future;

(h) Establish any other standard deemed reasonable and appropriate by the director;

(4) The director shall require an insurer to submit with any rate change application:

(a) A comparison, in a form prescribed by the director, between the insurer's initial projected incurred losses and its ultimate incurred losses for the eight most recent policy years for which such data is available;

(b) A memorandum explaining the methodology the insurer has used to reflect the total investment income it reasonably expects to earn on all its assets during the period the proposed rate is to be in effect. The director shall disapprove any rate application that does not fully reflect all such income;

(5) The director shall notify the public of any application from an insurer seeking a rate increase of fifteen percent or more, and shall hold a hearing on such application within forty-five days of such notice. The application shall be deemed approved ninety days after such notice unless it is disapproved by the director after the hearing;

(6) If after a hearing the director finds any rate of an insurer to be excessive, the director may order that the insurer discontinue the use of the rate and that the insurer refund the excessive portion of the rate to any policyholder who has paid such rate. The director shall not be required to find that a reasonable degree of competition does not exist to find a rate excessive.

3. For insurers required to file pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision (2) of subsection 2 of this section, if there is insufficient experience within the state of Missouri upon which a rate can be based with respect to the classification to which such rate is applicable, the director may approve a rate increase that considers experiences within any other state or states which have a similar cost of claim and frequency of claim experience as this state. If there is insufficient experience within Missouri or any other states which have similar cost of claim and frequency of claim experience as Missouri, nationwide experience may be considered. The insurer in its rate increase filing shall expressly show the rate experience it is using.

4. All information provided to the director under this section shall be available for public inspection.

5. The remedies set forth in this chapter shall be in addition to any other remedies available under statutory or common law.

6. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2005, shall be invalid and void.

383.205. For all medical malpractice insurance policies written for insureds in the state of Missouri, the ratio between the base rate of the highest-rated specialty and the base rate of the lowest-rated specialty shall be no more than a ratio of six-to-one.

383.210. In determining the premium paid by any health care provider, a medical malpractice insurer shall apply a credit or debit based on the provider's loss experience, or shall establish an alternative method giving due consideration to the provider's loss experience. The insurer shall include a schedule of all such credits and debits, or a description of such alternative method in all filings it makes with the director of insurance. No medical malpractice insurer may use any rate or charge any premiums unless it has filed such schedule or alternative method with the director of insurance and the director has approved such schedule or alternative method. A debit shall be based only on those claims that have been paid on behalf of the provider.

383.215. On or before March first of each year, every insurer providing medical malpractice insurance to a health care provider shall file the following information with the director of insurance:

2. The Internet site shall enable health care providers to complete an online form that captures a comprehensive set of information sufficient to generate a quote for each insurer. The director shall develop transmission software components which allow such information to be formatted for delivery to each medical malpractice insurer based on the requirements of the computer system of the insurer.

3. The director shall integrate the rating criteria of each insurer into its online form after consultation with each insurer using one of the following methods:

When an insurer changes its rates, such rate changes shall be implemented at the Internet site by the director, in consultation with the insurer, as soon as practicable but in no event later than ten days after such changes take effect. During any period in which an insurer has changed its rates but the director has not yet implemented such changed rates on the Internet site, quotes for that insurer shall not be obtainable at the Internet site.

6. The director shall design the Internet site to incorporate user-friendly formats and self-help guideline materials, and shall develop a user-friendly Internet user-interface.

8. By December 31, 2006, the director shall submit a report to the general assembly on the development, implementation, and affects of the Internet site established by this section. The report shall be based on:

2. [The affidavit shall state the qualifications of such health care providers to offer such opinion.] The health care provider who offers such opinion shall have education, training, and experience in a like area of expertise, or logical extension of the field of expertise, as the defendant health care provider. In addition, the health care provider must be actively engaged in the practice of medicine or have retired from actively practicing within five years of the date of the written opinion. The written opinion is, upon motion of a party, subject to in-camera review by the court without counsel or the parties present to assure its compliance with this section.

3. A separate affidavit shall be filed for each defendant named in the petition.

4. Such affidavit shall be filed no later than ninety days after the filing of the petition unless the court, for good cause shown, orders that such time be extended.

We thank You, God, for Your constant presence, Your mercy and grace that never fails us. And when it is hard for us to be ourselves You persist to let us know You care and are there for us; so we give You thanks for being with us this day and with those we love. The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Senator Gross in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“Keep your heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life.” (Proverbs 4:23)

Dear God, we acknowledge that the heart is seen by us as the seat of human emotion and it does us well to search it thoroughly to make sure all is in order for we know what this coming week means for many Americans and to us and it’s time to celebrate Your victory over death. So we complete our work here and prepare to spend precious time with our families and with You and enjoy the gift of new life You offer. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 714

WHEREAS, Southwest Missouri State University was founded on March 17, 1905, in Springfield, Missouri, as Missouri State Normal School, Fourth District; and

WHEREAS, Southwest Missouri State University has “Dared to Excel” for the past one hundred years; and

WHEREAS, the Southwest Missouri State University System, including its campuses in West Plains and Mountain Grove, is celebrating its Centennial year from July 1, 2004, through June 30, 2005; and

WHEREAS, during its one hundred years, the institution has successfully operated under four names, including Missouri State Normal School, Fourth District; Southwest Missouri State Teachers College; Southwest Missouri State College; and Southwest Missouri State University; and

WHEREAS, Southwest Missouri State University has “opened the door of opportunity” for countless students for the past century; and

WHEREAS, Southwest Missouri State University and its faculty, staff, and students have distinguished themselves in academics, in research, in public service, and in co-curricular activities; and

WHEREAS, since 1995, Southwest Missouri State University has been further distinguished by its statewide public affairs mission; and

WHEREAS, Southwest Missouri State University has had a profound effect on Springfield, southwest Missouri, the entire state, the nation, and the world; and

WHEREAS, Southwest Missouri State University has contributed to the economic development of the region and the state, impacting the area economy by nearly $2 million per day; and

WHEREAS, Southwest Missouri State University has improved the quality of life for citizens in Springfield, the region, and the state; and

WHEREAS, the future is bright for Southwest Missouri State University in the 21st Century:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to honor Southwest Missouri State University as it celebrates Southwest Missouri State University Founders Day on March 17, 2005; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Southwest Missouri State University in Springfield.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Senator Koster offered the following concurrent resolution:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 12

WHEREAS, the price of natural gas in the United States, already the highest in the industrial world, has again spiked and shows continued volatility; and

WHEREAS, the current price of natural gas is equivalent to paying $16.00 for a gallon of milk, $12.70 for a pound of ground beef, or $9.21 for a gallon of gasoline; and

WHEREAS, abnormally high natural gas prices have been a $111 billion unanticipated burden on the economy of the United States over the past 18 months; and

WHEREAS, the United States is over-reliant on natural gas in our national energy supply, creating a tremendous imbalance between natural gas supply and demand; and

WHEREAS, the manufacturers, farmers, small businesses, local governments, and retailers are struggling from skyrocketing natural gas prices. Further, thousands of jobs in these industries are threatened since many of these businesses use natural gas as a raw material as well as an energy supply; and

WHEREAS, the natural gas imbalance is not a free market problem. The high price of natural gas is created by governmental policies that increase demand for natural gas while impeding the development of a greater supply by discouraging more exploration and production. Since natural gas is domestically produced and very hard to import, the United States cannot correct the imbalance by the importation of natural gas; and

WHEREAS, the Missouri General Assembly supports a sound, rational domestic energy policy:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Third General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby urge the United States Congress to enact legislation in the 109th Congress establishing a domestic energy policy that will ensure an adequate supply of natural gas and the appropriate infrastructure. Such energy policy should develop a concerted national effort to promote greater energy efficiency and open promising new areas for environmentally responsible natural gas production; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the President of the United States, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and each member of the Missouri Congressional Delegation.

OBJECTIONS

Senator Coleman offered the following constitutional objection:

March 17, 2005

Terry L. Spieler - Secretary of the Missouri Senate
 Missouri State Capitol, Room 325
 Jefferson City, Missouri 65101

RE: Constitutional Objections to be Included in the Senate Journal of this Date.

Dear Terry:

Pursuant to Senate Rule 68, please let this serve as my written objections to the signing of CCS/SS/SCS/HCS/HB 393. I ask that this letter be printed in the journal. My objections are as follows:

1. The bill violates the open courts provision of the Missouri Constitution contained in section 14 of article I.
2. The bill violates the constitutional mandate of section 5 of article V of the Missouri Constitution that the rules of practice and procedure of the courts of justice are to be established by the Missouri Supreme Court not the Missouri General Assembly.
3. The bill contains more than one subject in violation of section 23 of article III of the Missouri Constitution in that it contains provisions relating not for profit corporations (chapter 355), legal tender and interest (chapter 408), evidence (chapter 490), venue (chapter 508), pleadings (chapter 510), appeals and appellate procedure (chapter 512), costs in civil cases (chapter 514), statutes of limitation (chapter 516), torts and actions for damages (chapter 537), and tort actions based upon improper health care (chapter 538).
4. The bill violates section 23 of article III of the Missouri Constitution in that the subject of the bill was not clearly expressed in the title. According to the title of CCS/SS/SCS/HCS/HB 393, the bill relates to “claims for damages and the payment thereof.” This title clearly fails to encompass all of the subjects described in paragraph 3 of this letter.

I ask that these objections be attached to the bill. Thank you.

Sincerely,
 /s/ Maida J. Coleman
 Maida J. Coleman
 Minority Floor Leader

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

Martin Luther prayed for lawmakers: “Give them the ability to work for what is necessary to keep the peace and let them exercise care, lest their laws become impossible burdens.”

Gracious God, we pray also that You help legislators fashion and shape laws that will encourage men and women to live in peace. We pray that they may be able to create legislation that provides governing with strength and power tempered by justice. We pray that You will inspire them with wisdom to write laws with integrity that encourages goodwill among all citizens. And we pray they accomplish that which is well pleasing to You. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

“But shouts of joy and gladness for all who take pleasure in my virtue; give them constant cause to say, ‘Great is Yahweh, who like to see his servant at peace!’” (Psalm 36:27)

Almighty God, we pray that we may always be about that which You desire that our lives may reflect Your virtue in the bills we pass and the way we live our lives. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

FORTY-SIXTH DAY—MONDAY, APRIL 4, 2005

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.” (Psalm 121:2)

Heavenly Father, You are an ever-present help, full of grace and love for Your children. We pray that You will be especially close to our Roman Catholic brothers and sisters who mourn the death of the Pope, and sustain them as they remember and seek a new spiritual leader to guide them through some difficult times ahead. And be with us as we may face some difficult days ahead as we discern the budget needs of this state and the programs that assist Your people to do the work with and for those You call to our attention. Provide us with wisdom and comfort. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 901

WHEREAS, Amendment I of the United States Constitution, which provides in part that “Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion...” is a specific and unequivocal instruction to only the United States Congress; and

WHEREAS, the United States Constitution makes no restriction on the ability of states to acknowledge God, the Supreme Ruler of the Universe; and

WHEREAS, Amendment X of the United States Constitution, which provides that “The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people”, reserved the right of the acknowledgment of God to the states and the people; and

WHEREAS, the Preamble to the Missouri Constitution, which provides that “We the people of Missouri, with profound reverence for the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, and grateful for His goodness, do establish this constitution for the better government of the state”, is within the boundaries of rights reserved to the states by the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, the Federal Judiciary has overstepped its constitutional boundaries and ruled against the acknowledgment of God as the sovereign source of law, liberty, and government by local and state officers and other state institutions, including state schools; and

WHEREAS, the Federal Judiciary has created confusion between Amendment I and Amendment X of the United States Constitution, and has consistently misapplied Amendment 14, usurping the rights of the states and the people; and

WHEREAS, Article VI of the United States Constitution requires that each member of the United States Congress and each member of the several state legislatures be bound by oath or affirmation to “support this constitution”; and

WHEREAS, among the seminal principles of our constitutional republic is the premise that each branch of government will be a “check” upon the others; and

WHEREAS, the United States Congress is charged with the solemn responsibility to cause the Federal Judiciary to refrain from interfering with the acknowledgment of God by any local, state, or Federal official by any constitutional means at its' disposal, including limiting the jurisdiction of the Federal courts in such matters; and

WHEREAS, Article III, Section 2 of the United States Constitution, provides in part that “the.... court shall have appellate jurisdiction, both as to law and fact, with such exceptions, and under such regulations as the Congress shall make”; and

WHEREAS, there is pending before the 1st Session of the 109th Congress the Constitution Restoration Act of 2005, which will limit the jurisdiction of the Federal courts and preserve the right to acknowledge God, exercised by the state of Missouri in its Preamble to the Missouri Constitution, to the states and to the people and resolve the issue of improper judicial intervention in matters relating to the acknowledgment of God:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Third General Assembly, First Regular Session, hereby urge the United States Congress to adopt forthwith HR1070 and S520, the Constitution Restoration Act of 2005; and

Whereas, the manufacture, importation, possession, sale, and use of firearms and ammunition in the United States are heavily regulated by federal, state, and local laws, including the Gun Control Act of 1968, the National Firearms Act, and the Arms Export Control Act; and

Whereas, businesses in the United States that are engaged in interstate and foreign commerce through the lawful design, manufacture, marketing, distribution, importation, or sale to the public of firearms or ammunition that has been shipped or transported in interstate or foreign commerce are not, and should not, be liable for the harm caused by those who criminally or unlawfully misuse firearm products or ammunition products that function as designed and intended; and

Whereas, thirty-three states have passed legislation protecting firearms and ammunition manufacturers, and legislation in Congress supporting this measure has broad bipartisan support:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-third General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby request our elected Representatives and Senators in the United States Congress to end the abuse of tort laws against the firearms industry; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for each member of the Missouri Congressional Delegation.

In which the concurrence of the Senate is respectfully requested.

Also,

Mr. President: I am instructed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House has taken up and passed HCS for SCS for SBs 202, 33, 45, 183 and 217, entitled:

An Act to repeal section 287.845, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof two new sections relating to retirement, with an emergency clause.

Emergency clause adopted.

In which the concurrence of the Senate is respectfully requested.

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

FORTY-NINTH DAY—THURSDAY, APRIL 7, 2005

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Senator Griesheimer in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“Create in me a clean heart, O God; And renew a right spirit within me.” (Psalm 51:10)

Almighty God, we know that all of life continues only as long as it is renewed and so we pray daily that we might be renewed by Your Holy Spirit so that we are capable of performing the work You have given us to do. Renew us so that we see our relationships with one another as a means for us to grow and understand this world in which we live. Renew us, Lord, so we may be capable of having life and living it abundantly new each day. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

260.905. 1. The commission shall promulgate and adopt such initial rules and regulations, effective no later than July 1, [2002] 2007, as shall be necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of sections 260.900 to 260.960. Prior to the promulgation of such rules, the commission shall meet with representatives of the dry-cleaning industry and other interested parties. The commission, thereafter, shall promulgate and adopt additional rules and regulations or change existing rules and regulations when necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of sections 260.900 to 260.960.

2. Any rule or regulation adopted pursuant to sections 260.900 to 260.960 shall be reasonably necessary to protect human health, to preserve, protect and maintain the water and other natural resources of this state and to provide for prompt corrective action of releases from dry-cleaning facilities. Consistent with these purposes, the commission shall adopt rules and regulations, effective no later than July 1, [2002] 2007:

- (1) Establishing requirements that owners who close dry-cleaning facilities remove dry-cleaning solvents and wastes from such facilities in order to prevent any future releases;
- (2) Establishing criteria to prioritize the expenditure of funds from the dry-cleaning environmental response trust fund. The criteria shall include consideration of:
 - (a) The benefit to be derived from corrective action compared to the cost of conducting such corrective action;
 - (b) The degree to which human health and the environment are actually affected by exposure to contamination;
 - (c) The present and future use of an affected aquifer or surface water;
 - (d) The effect that interim or immediate remedial measures will have on future costs; and
 - (e) Such additional factors as the commission considers relevant;
- (3) Establishing criteria under which a determination may be made by the department of the level at which corrective action shall be deemed completed. Criteria for determining completion of corrective action shall be based on the factors set forth in subdivision (2) of this subsection and:

- (a) Individual site characteristics including natural remediation processes;
- (b) Applicable state water quality standards;
- (c) Whether deviation from state water quality standards or from established criteria is appropriate, based on the degree to which the desired remediation level is achievable and may be reasonably and cost effectively implemented, subject to the limitation that where a state water quality standard is applicable, a deviation may not result in the application of standards more stringent than that standard; and
- (d) Such additional factors as the commission considers relevant.

260.925. 1. On and after July 1, 2002, moneys in the fund shall be utilized to address contamination resulting from releases of dry-cleaning solvents as provided in sections 260.900 to 260.960. Whenever a release poses a threat to human health or the environment, the department, consistent with rules and regulations adopted by the commission pursuant to subdivisions (2) and (3) of subsection 2 of section 260.905, shall expend moneys available in the fund to provide for:

- (1) Investigation and assessment of a release from a dry-cleaning facility, including costs of investigations and assessments of contamination which may have moved off of the dry-cleaning facility;
- (2) Necessary or appropriate emergency action, including but not limited to treatment, restoration or replacement of drinking water supplies, to assure that the human health or safety is not threatened by a release or potential release;
- (3) Remediation of releases from dry-cleaning facilities, including contamination which may have moved off of the dry-cleaning facility, which remediation shall consist of the preparation of a corrective action plan and the cleanup of affected soil, groundwater and surface waters, using an alternative that is cost-effective, technologically feasible and reliable, provides adequate protection of human health and environment and to the extent practicable minimizes environmental damage;
- (4) Operation and maintenance of corrective action;
- (5) Monitoring of releases from dry-cleaning facilities including contamination which may have moved off of the dry-cleaning facility;
- (6) Payment of reasonable costs incurred by the director in providing field and laboratory services;
- (7) Reasonable costs of restoring property as nearly as practicable to the condition that existed prior to activities associated with the investigation of a release or cleanup or remediation activities;
- (8) Removal and proper disposal of wastes generated by a release of a dry-cleaning solvent; and
- (9) Payment of costs of corrective action conducted by the department or by entities other than the department but approved by the department, whether or not such corrective action is set out in a corrective action plan; except that, there shall be no reimbursement for corrective action costs incurred before August 28, 2000.

2. Nothing in subsection 1 of this section shall be construed to authorize the department to obligate moneys in the fund for payment of costs that are not integral to corrective action for a release of dry-cleaning solvents from a dry-cleaning facility. Moneys from the fund shall not be used:

- (1) For corrective action at sites that are contaminated by solvents normally used in dry-cleaning operations where the contamination did not result from the operation of a dry-cleaning facility;
- (2) For corrective action at sites, other than dry-cleaning facilities, that are contaminated by dry-cleaning solvents which were released while being transported to or from a dry-cleaning facility;
- (3) To pay any fine or penalty brought against a dry-cleaning facility operator under state or federal law;
- (4) To pay any costs related to corrective action at a dry-cleaning facility that has been included by the United States Environmental Protection Agency on the national priorities list;
- (5) For corrective action at sites with active dry-cleaning facilities where the owner or operator is not in compliance with sections 260.900 to 260.960, rules and regulations adopted pursuant to sections 260.900 to 260.960, orders of the director pursuant to sections 260.900 to 260.960, or any other applicable federal or state environmental statutes, rules or regulations; or
- (6) For corrective action at sites with abandoned dry-cleaning facilities that have been taken out of operation prior to July 1, [2004] 2009, and not documented by or reported to the department by July 1, [2004] 2009. Any person reporting such a site to the department shall include any available evidence that the site once contained a dry-cleaning facility.

3. Nothing in sections 260.900 to 260.960 shall be construed to restrict the department from temporarily postponing completion of corrective action for which moneys from the fund are being expended whenever such postponement is deemed necessary in order to protect public health and the environment.

4. At any multisource site, the department shall utilize the moneys in the fund to pay for the proportionate share of the liability for corrective action costs which is attributable to a release from one or more dry-cleaning facilities and for that proportionate share of the liability only.

5. At any multisource site, the director is authorized to make a determination of the relative liability of the fund for costs of corrective action, expressed as a percentage of the total cost of corrective action at a site, whether known or unknown. The director shall issue an order establishing such percentage of liability. Such order shall be binding and shall control the obligation of the fund until or unless amended by the director. In the event of an appeal from such order, such percentage of liability shall be controlling for costs incurred during the pendency of the appeal.

6. Any authorized officer, employee or agent of the department, or any person under order or contract with the department, may enter onto any property or premises, at reasonable times and with reasonable advance notice to the operator, to take corrective action where the director determines that such action is necessary to protect the public health or environment. If consent is not granted by the operator regarding any request made by any officer, employee or agent of the department, or any person under order or contract with the department, under the provisions of this section, the director may issue an order directing compliance with the request. The order may be issued after such notice and opportunity for consultation as is reasonably appropriate under the circumstances.

7. Notwithstanding any other provision of sections 260.900 to 260.960, in the discretion of the director, an operator may be responsible for up to one hundred percent of the costs of corrective action attributable to such operator if the director finds, after notice and an opportunity for a hearing in accordance with chapter 536, RSMo, that:

(1) Requiring the operator to bear such responsibility will not prejudice another owner, operator or person who is eligible, pursuant to the provisions of sections 260.900 to 260.960, to have corrective action costs paid by the fund; and

(2) The operator:

(a) Caused a release in excess of a reportable quantity by willful or wanton actions and such release was caused by operating practices in violation of existing laws and regulations at the time of the release; or

(b) Is in arrears for moneys owed pursuant to sections 260.900 to 260.960, after notice and an opportunity to correct the arrearage; or

(c) Materially obstructs the efforts of the department to carry out its obligations pursuant to sections 260.900 to 260.960; except that, the exercise of legal rights shall not constitute a substantial obstruction; or

(d) Caused or allowed a release in excess of a reportable quantity because of a willful material violation of sections 260.900 to 260.960 or the rules and regulations adopted by the commission pursuant to sections 260.900 to 260.960.

8. For purposes of subsection 7 of this section, unless a transfer is made to take advantage of the provisions of subsection 7 of this section, purchasers of stock or other indicia of ownership and other successors in interest shall not be considered to be the same owner or operator as the seller or transferor of such stock or indicia of ownership even though there may be no change in the legal identity of the owner or operator. To the extent that an owner or operator is responsible for corrective action costs pursuant to subsection 7 of this section, such owner or operator shall not be entitled to the exemption provided in subsection 5 of section 260.930.

9. The fund shall not be liable for the payment of costs in excess of one million dollars at any one contaminated dry-cleaning site. Additionally, the fund shall not be liable for the payment of costs for any one site in excess of twenty-five percent of the total moneys in the fund during any fiscal year. For purposes of this subsection, "contaminated dry-cleaning site" means the areal extent of soil or ground water contaminated with dry-cleaning solvents.

10. The owner or operator of an active dry-cleaning facility shall be liable for the first twenty-five thousand dollars of corrective action costs incurred because of a release from an active dry-cleaning facility. The owner of an abandoned dry-cleaning facility shall be liable for the first twenty-five thousand dollars of corrective action costs incurred because of a release from an abandoned dry-cleaning facility. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prohibit the department from taking corrective action because the department cannot obtain the deductible.

260.935. 1. Every active dry-cleaning facility shall pay, in addition to any other environmental response surcharges, an annual dry-cleaning facility registration surcharge as follows:

(1) Five hundred dollars for facilities which use no more than one hundred forty gallons of chlorinated solvents [and no more than one thousand four hundred gallons of petroleum, nonchlorinated solvents per year];

(2) One thousand dollars for facilities which use more than one hundred forty gallons of chlorinated solvents [or more than one thousand four hundred gallons of petroleum, nonchlorinated solvents per year] and less than three hundred sixty gallons of chlorinated solvents [and less than three thousand six hundred gallons of petroleum, nonchlorinated solvents] per year; and

(3) Fifteen hundred dollars for facilities which use at least three hundred sixty gallons of chlorinated solvents [or at least three thousand six hundred gallons of petroleum, nonchlorinated solvents] per year.

2. The active dry-cleaning facility registration surcharge imposed by this section shall be reported and paid to the department on an annual basis. The commission shall prescribe by administrative rule the procedure for the report and payment required by this section.

3. The department shall provide each person who pays a dry-cleaning facility registration surcharge pursuant to this section with a receipt. The receipt or the copy of the receipt shall be produced for inspection at the request of any authorized representative of the department.

4. All moneys collected or received by the department pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the department of revenue for deposit in the state treasury to the credit of the dry-cleaning environmental response trust fund created in section 260.920. Following each annual reporting date, the state treasurer shall certify the amount deposited in the fund to the department.

5. If any person does not pay the active dry-cleaning facility registration surcharge or any portion of the active dry-cleaning facility registration surcharge imposed by this section by the date prescribed for such payment, the department shall impose and such person shall pay, in addition to the active dry-cleaning facility registration surcharge owed by such person, a penalty of fifteen percent of the active dry-cleaning facility registration surcharge. Such penalty shall be deposited in the dry-cleaning environmental response trust fund.

6. If any person does not pay the active dry-cleaning facility registration surcharge or any portion of the active dry-cleaning facility registration surcharge imposed by this section by the date prescribed for such payment, the department shall also impose interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of ten percent per annum from the date prescribed for the payment of such surcharge and penalties until payment is actually made. Such interest shall be deposited in the dry-cleaning environmental response trust fund.

260.940. 1. Every seller or provider of dry-cleaning solvent for use in this state shall pay, in addition to any other environmental response surcharges, a dry-cleaning solvent surcharge on the sale or provision of dry-cleaning solvent.

2. The amount of the dry-cleaning solvent surcharge imposed by this section on each gallon of dry-cleaning solvent shall be an amount equal to the product of the solvent factor for the dry-cleaning solvent and the rate of eight dollars per gallon.

3. The solvent factor for each dry-cleaning solvent is as follows:

(1) For perchloroethylene, the solvent factor is 1.00;

(2) For 1,1,1-trichloroethane, the solvent factor is 1.00; and

(3) For other chlorinated dry-cleaning solvents, the solvent factor is 1.00[; and

(4) For any nonchlorinated dry-cleaning solvent, the solvent factor is 0.05].

4. In the case of a fraction of a gallon, the dry-cleaning solvent surcharge imposed by this section shall be the same fraction of the fee imposed on a whole gallon.

5. The dry-cleaning solvent surcharge required in this section shall be paid to the department by the seller or provider of the dry-cleaning solvent, regardless of the location of such seller or provider.

6. The dry-cleaning solvent surcharge required in this section shall be paid by the seller or provider on a quarterly basis and shall be paid to the department for the previous quarter. The commission shall prescribe by administrative rule the procedure for the payment required by this section.

7. The department shall provide each person who pays a dry-cleaning solvent surcharge pursuant to this section with a receipt. The receipt or the copy of the receipt shall be produced for inspection at the request of any authorized representative of the department.

8. All moneys collected or received by the department pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the department of revenue for deposit in the state treasury to the credit of the dry-cleaning environmental response trust fund created in section 260.920. Following each annual or quarterly reporting date, the state treasurer shall certify the amount deposited to the department.

9. If any seller or provider of dry-cleaning solvent fails or refuses to pay the dry-cleaning solvent surcharge imposed by this section, the department shall impose and such seller or provider shall pay, in addition to the dry-cleaning solvent surcharge owed by the seller or provider, a penalty of fifteen percent of the dry-cleaning solvent surcharge. Such penalty shall be deposited in the dry-cleaning environmental response trust fund.

10. If any person does not pay the dry-cleaning solvent surcharge or any portion of the dry-cleaning solvent surcharge imposed by this section by the date prescribed for such payment, the department shall impose and such person shall pay interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of ten percent per annum from the date prescribed for the payment of such surcharge and penalties until payment is actually made. Such interest shall be deposited in the dry-cleaning environmental response trust fund.

11. An operator of a dry-cleaning facility shall not purchase or obtain solvent from a seller or provider who does not pay the dry-cleaning solvent charge, as provided in this section. Any operator of a dry-cleaning facility who fails to obey the provisions of this section shall be required to pay the dry-cleaning solvent surcharge as provided in subsections 2, 3 and 4 of this section for any dry-cleaning solvent purchased or obtained from a seller or provider who fails to pay the proper dry-cleaning solvent surcharge as determined by the department. Any operator of a dry-cleaning facility who fails to follow the provisions of this subsection shall also be charged a penalty of fifteen percent of the dry-cleaning solvent surcharge owed. Any operator of a dry-cleaning facility who fails to obey the provisions of this subsection shall also be subject to the interest provisions of subsection 10 of this section. If a seller or provider of dry-cleaning solvent charges the operator of a dry-cleaning facility the dry-cleaning solvent surcharge provided for in this section when the solvent is purchased or obtained by the operator and the operator can prove that the operator made full payment of the surcharge to the seller or provider but the seller or provider fails to pay the surcharge to the department as required by this section, then the operator shall not be liable pursuant to this subsection for interest, penalties or the seller's or provider's unpaid surcharge. Such surcharges, penalties and interest shall be collected by the department, and all moneys collected pursuant to this subsection shall be deposited in the dry-cleaning environmental response trust fund.

260.945. 1. If the unobligated principal of the fund equals or exceeds five million dollars on April first of any year, the active dry-cleaning facility registration surcharge imposed by section 260.935 and the dry-cleaning solvent surcharge imposed by section 260.940 shall not be collected on or after the next July first until such time as on April first of any year thereafter the unobligated principal balance of the fund equals two million dollars or less, then the active dry-cleaning facility registration surcharge imposed by section 260.935 and the dry-cleaning solvent surcharge imposed by section 260.940 shall again be collected on and after the next July first.

2. Not later than April fifth of each year, the state treasurer shall notify the department of the amount of the unobligated balance of the fund on April first of such year. Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

FIFTIETH DAY—MONDAY, APRIL 11, 2005

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Senator Griesheimer in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God.” (1 Peter 5:6)

Heavenly Father, we return with much work before us and there are concerns in our hearts of what is needed and necessary. The pressure is slowly rising and our human wisdom would have us dictate to You or sit in judgment on Your will; so we pray that we might surrender ourselves wholly, unreservedly to Your Holy will. Let us quiet our soul’s complaints and allow Your joy and love to direct our thoughts and actions this week so that Your peace and gentle leading may open our hearts to say: “Father, not my will but Yours be done.” In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

FIFTY-FIRST DAY— TUESDAY, APRIL 12, 2005

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Senator Koster in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“Be you therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.” (Luke 6:36)

Gracious God, we know that many times we are more quick to judge than we are to forgive and You have taught us that this is the opposite of mercy; so we pray that our hearts may be warmed by Your love and our lives may reflect this love in our dealings with one another and those who seek much from us. And we pray for the Spirit-given graces that include our actions to express mercy, be slow in judgment and have a readiness to forgive. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

President Kinder assumed the Chair.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

The Journal of the previous day was read and approved.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Senator Purgason offered the following concurrent resolution:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 14

WHEREAS, gasoline, one of the main products refined from crude oil, accounts for approximately 17% of the energy consumed in the United States; and

WHEREAS, the cost to produce and deliver gasoline to consumers includes the cost of crude oil to refiners, refinery processing costs, marketing and distribution costs, and finally the retail station costs and taxes. The prices paid by consumers at the pump reflect these costs, as well as the profits of refiners, marketers, distributors, and retail station owners; and

WHEREAS, in 2003, the price of crude oil averaged $28.50 per barrel, and crude oil accounted for about 44% of the cost of a gallon of regular grade gasoline. In 2005, the price of a barrel of crude oil soared to an all-time high of more than $58 per barrel, resulting in the average price of gasoline rising to more than $2 per gallon. Gasoline prices are predicted to exceed $2.50 per gallon in the peak summer months and may reach an incredible $3 per gallon; and

WHEREAS, while federal, state, and local taxes account for approximately 27% of the cost of a gallon of gasoline, refining costs and profits comprise about 15% of the retail price of gasoline, and distribution, marketing, and retail dealer costs and profits combined make up 14% of the cost of a gallon of gasoline, the primary component driving up the cost of gasoline prices in 2005 is the unprecedented price of crude oil; and

WHEREAS, events in the crude oil market have been a major factor in all of the recent rises in gasoline prices, including OPEC crude oil production cuts and turmoil in key oil producing countries; and

WHEREAS, in addition to the steep rise in crude oil prices, problems with petroleum infrastructure in the United States, such as refineries and pipelines, have contributed to the recent increased cost of gasoline. Refineries in the United States are operating at maximum capacity and are experiencing difficulty in keeping up with the demand for gasoline in this country; and

WHEREAS, in addition, some areas of the United States are required to use special oxygenated, reformulated, and low-volatility gasolines due to environmental programs aimed at reducing carbon monoxide, smog, and air toxins. Other environmental programs restrict the transportation and storage of gasoline; and

WHEREAS, with a number of states passing legislation to restrict the use of the gasoline additive MTBE, large changes to gasoline production and distribution are required; and

WHEREAS, with the recent unprecedented rise in crude oil prices and the problems with the petroleum infrastructure in the United States, it is imperative that the United States explore a number of avenues to reduce our nation's demand on foreign oil and increase the supply of gasoline in this country:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Senate of the Ninety-third General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby urge the United States Congress to investigate the recent sharp rise in gasoline prices in the United States and explore ways to reduce the price of gasoline, including utilization of alternate fuels; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for each member of the Missouri Congressional Delegation.

The state board of education may, within [forty-five] sixty days, disapprove the granting of the charter. The state board of education may disapprove a charter [only] on grounds that the application fails to meet the requirements of sections 160.400 to 160.420 or that a charter sponsor previously failed to meet the statutory responsibilities of a charter sponsor.

4. Any disapproval of a charter pursuant to subsection 3 of this section shall be subject to judicial review pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo.

Sponsors shall also approve comprehensive academic and behavioral measures to determine whether students are meeting performance standards on a different time frame as specified in that school's charter. Student performance shall be assessed comprehensively to determine whether a high risk or alternative charter school has documented adequate student progress. Annual presentation of charter school report card data to the department of elementary and secondary education, the state board, and the public shall include comprehensive measures of student progress.

(c) Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as permitting a charter school to be held to lower performance standards than other public schools within a district; however, the charter of a charter school may permit students to meet performance standards on a different time frame as specified in its charter;

(7) Assure that the needs of special education children are met in compliance with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations;

6. The charter of a charter school may be amended at the request of the governing body of the charter school and on the approval of the sponsor. The sponsor and the governing board and staff of the charter school shall jointly review the school's performance, management and operations at least once every two years or at any point where the operation or management of the charter school is changed or transferred to another entity, either public or private. The governing board of a charter school may amend the charter, if the sponsor approves such amendment, or the sponsor and the governing board may reach an agreement in writing to reflect the charter school's decision to become a local educational agency for the sole purpose of seeking direct access to federal grants. In such case the sponsor shall give the department of elementary and secondary education ninety days' written notice prior to the effective date of such agreement. The department shall identify and furnish a list of its regulations that pertain to local educational agencies to such schools within thirty days of receiving such notice.

provisions of its charter or on any of the following grounds: failure to meet academic performance standards as set forth in its charter, failure to meet generally accepted standards of fiscal management, failure to provide information necessary to confirm compliance with all provisions of the charter and sections 160.400 to 160.420 within forty-five days following receipt of written notice requesting such information, or violation of law.

(2) The sponsor may place the charter school on probationary status to allow the implementation of a remedial plan, which may require a change of methodology, a change in leadership, or both, after which, if such plan is unsuccessful, the charter may be revoked.

(3) At least sixty days before acting to revoke a charter, the sponsor shall notify the [board of directors] governing board of the charter school of the proposed action in writing. The notice shall state the grounds for the proposed action. The school's [board of directors] governing board may request in writing a hearing before the sponsor within two weeks of receiving the notice.

(4) The sponsor of a charter school shall establish procedures to conduct administrative hearings upon determination by the sponsor that grounds exist to revoke a charter. Final decisions of a sponsor from hearings conducted pursuant to this subsection are subject to judicial review pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo.

(5) A termination shall be effective only at the conclusion of the school year, unless the sponsor determines that continued operation of the school presents a clear and immediate threat to the health and safety of the children.

(6) A charter sponsor shall make available the school accountability report card information as provided under section 160.522 and the results of the academic monitoring required under subsection 3 of this section.

8. Every charter school shall provide all information necessary to confirm ongoing compliance with all provisions of its charter and sections 160.400 to 160.420 in a timely manner to its sponsor.

[9.] 10. A governing board or a school district employee who has control over personnel actions shall not take unlawful reprisal against another employee at the school district because the employee is directly or indirectly involved in an application to establish a charter school. A governing board or a school district employee shall not take unlawful reprisal against an educational program of the school or the school district because an application to establish a charter school proposes the conversion of all or a portion of the educational program to a charter school. As used in this subsection, "unlawful reprisal" means an action that is taken by a governing board or a school district employee as a direct result of a lawful application to establish a charter school and that is adverse to another employee or an educational program.

11. Charter school board members shall be subject to the same liability for acts while in office as if they were regularly and duly elected members of school boards in any other public school district in this state. The governing board of a charter school may participate, to the same extent as a school board, in the Missouri public entity risk management fund in the manner provided under sections 537.700 to 537.756, RSMo.

A charter school shall enroll all pupils resident in the district in which it operates or eligible to attend a district's school under an urban voluntary transfer program who submit a timely application, unless the number of applications exceeds the capacity of a program, class, grade level or building. If capacity is insufficient to enroll all pupils who submit a timely application, the charter school shall have an admissions process that assures all applicants of an equal chance of gaining admission except that:

(1) A charter school may establish a geographical area around the school whose residents will receive a preference for enrolling in the school, provided that such preferences do not result in the establishment of racially or

socioeconomically isolated schools and provided such preferences conform to policies and guidelines established by the state board of education; and

(2) A charter school may also give a preference for admission of children whose siblings attend the school or whose parents are employed at the school.

2. A charter school shall not limit admission based on race, ethnicity, national origin, disability, gender, income level, proficiency in the English language or athletic ability, but may limit admission to pupils within a given age group or grade level.

3. The department of elementary and secondary education shall commission a study of the performance of students at each charter school in comparison with a comparable group and a study of the impact of charter schools upon the districts in which they are located, to be conducted by a contractor selected through a request for proposal. The department of elementary and secondary education shall reimburse the contractor from funds appropriated by the general assembly for the purpose. The study of a charter school's student performance in relation to a comparable group shall be designed to provide information that would allow parents and educators to make valid comparisons of academic performance between the charter school's students and a group of students comparable to the students enrolled in the charter school. The impact study shall be undertaken every two years to determine the effect of charter schools on education stakeholders in the districts where charter schools are operated. The impact study may include, but is not limited to, determining if changes have been made in district policy or procedures attributable to the charter school and to perceived changes in attitudes and expectations on the part of district personnel, school board members, parents, students, the business community and other education stakeholders. The department of elementary and secondary education shall make the results of the studies public and shall deliver copies to the governing boards of the charter schools, the sponsors of the charter schools, the school board and superintendent of the districts in which the charter schools are operated.

4. A charter school shall make available for public inspection, and provide upon request, to the parent, guardian, or other custodian of any school-age pupil resident in the district in which the school is located, the following information:

(3) If the department overpays or underpays the amount due to the charter school, such over payment or under payment shall be repaid by the public charter school or credited to the public charter school in twelve equal payments in the next fiscal year.

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 19

"168.281. 1. After completion of satisfactory probationary service, appointments of employees shall become permanent subject to removal for any one or more causes herein described as well as to the right of the board to terminate services of all who attain the age of compulsory retirement fixed by the retirement system.

2. (1) No employee whose appointment has become permanent may be removed, aside from compulsory retirement, except for one or more of the following causes: Immorality, felony conviction of a crime under any state or federal criminal statute, inefficiency or incompetency in line of duty, violation of the published regulations of the school district, violation of the laws of Missouri governing the public schools of the state, or that his physical or mental condition is such that it incapacitates him from properly performing his duties or from properly associating with children, and then only after the personnel director has given written notice to the employee, by registered mail with return receipt of his suspension and proposed discharge. The registered letter is to notify the employee

(a) Of the charges on which the suspension and proposed discharge is based;

(b) Of the date, time, and place of the hearing of the charges by the personnel committee;

(c) Of the employee's right to be present at the hearing and to have counsel or other representative of his choice;

(d) Of his right to testify and to offer testimony of witnesses as well as other evidence sustaining his defense, and to cross-examine adverse witnesses and to generally conduct a defense;

(e) And of the necessity, in order for him to avail himself of the aforesaid opportunity to defend himself against the charges, that he notify the personnel director in writing, at least three days before the date of the hearing, of his intention to offer the defense.

(2) The hearing of the committee is to be held not less than ten nor more than fifteen days after the mailing date of the notice of hearing to the employee, except by mutual agreement of the committee and the employee. Failure of the employee to give the three days' notice in writing of his election to defend, or having given the notice, failure of the employee to appear at the hearing, shall each be considered by the committee as an admission of the truth of the charges and the committee may rule accordingly. The committee may, in its discretion, to avoid undue hardship, and upon a sufficient showing by the employee of valid and cogent reasons for his failure to notify the committee of his election to defend, or of his subsequent failure to appear at the hearing, reset the hearing in the same manner as before.

(3) Upon conducting the hearing of the charges, or if no defense is offered, upon considering the charges, the personnel committee by majority vote shall make its decision as soon as practicable and shall immediately thereafter notify the employee of its decision by registered mail. The committee may rule

(a) That the employee's suspension was justified and that he is discharged with loss of pay as of the date of his suspension;

(b) That the suspension was unjustified and no grounds calling for his discharge have been proven and that the employee shall immediately be restored to his former position without any loss of pay;

(c) That the proven charges are of such a nature that they can be removed or remedied by transferring the employee to a different position, grade, classification, school or building in which case the employee shall lose no pay during his suspension prior to the committee's decision;

(d) Or the committee may make any ruling, less severe than that of discharge, which the committee may deem meet and just under the circumstances including suspension with the loss of pay. The decision of the personnel committee shall be final; provided, however, that upon the request of the employee affected the board shall review the record of the proceedings before the personnel committee and may, in its discretion, grant the employee a hearing before the board. Upon hearing the board may affirm, rescind or modify the decision of the committee and make any other orders in connection therewith that are appropriate under the circumstances.

3. No employee whose appointment has become permanent shall be suspended without pay, nor be demoted nor shall his salary be reduced unless the same procedure is followed as herein stated for the removal of the employee because of inefficiency in line of duty, and any employee whose salary is reduced or who is demoted may waive the presentment of charges against him and a hearing thereon by the committee. Nothing herein shall in any way restrict or limit the powers of the board of education to make reductions in the number of employees because of insufficient funds or decrease in pupil enrollment or lack of work.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 9

WHEREAS, the Government Pension Offset (GPO) and Windfall Elimination Provision (WEP) of the federal Social Security Act penalize people who have dedicated their lives to public and military service by taking away benefits they have earned; and

WHEREAS, nine out of ten public employees affected by the GPO lose their entire spousal benefit, even though their spouse paid Social Security taxes for many years; and

WHEREAS, the WEP causes hard-working people to lose up to sixty percent of the benefits they earned themselves; and

WHEREAS, many workers rely on misleading Social Security Administration statements that fail to take into account the GPO and WEP when projecting benefits; and

WHEREAS, the impact of the GPO and WEP is not just felt in those states in which public employees, including retired veterans, are not covered by Social Security, because people move from state to state and affected individuals are everywhere; and

WHEREAS, the GPO and WEP apply to Missouri retired veterans; and

WHEREAS, the number of people affected across the country is growing every day as more and more people reach retirement age; and

WHEREAS, some 300,000 individuals lose an average of $3,600 a year due to the GPO which can make the difference between self-sufficiency and poverty; and

WHEREAS, these people have less money to spend in their local economy and sometimes have to turn to expensive government programs like food stamps to make ends meet; and

WHEREAS, the nation should respect, not penalize, public and military service; and

WHEREAS, the GPO and WEP are established in federal law and repeal of the GPO and WEP can only be enacted by the United States Congress:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-third General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby urge the Congress of the United States to immediately repeal the Government Pension Offset and Windfall Elimination Provision of the Social Security Act; and

FIFTY-THIRD DAY— THURSDAY, APRIL 14, 2005

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Senator Nodler in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God.” (Romans 10:17)

Blessed Father, we conclude another week grateful that we have time this weekend to be with those we love. Grant that we may make good use of the time to hear the concerns of those who have missed us and to share and let them know the love we have for them. Grant us grace to enjoy and be thankful for the love we receive from those You have given us. And may we make time to hear Your Word with our hearts attuned to Your voice. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

Medicaid or medicare payments for primary care and preventive health services provided by a physician, dentist, physician assistant, dental hygienist, or nurse who volunteers at a free health clinic is not compensation for the purpose of this section if the total payment is assigned to the free health clinic. For the purposes of the section, "free health clinic" means a nonprofit community health center qualified as exempt from federal taxation under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1987, as amended, that provides primary care and preventive health services to people without health insurance coverage for the services provided without charge. In the case of any claim or judgment that arises under this paragraph, the aggregate of payments from the state legal expense fund shall be limited to a maximum of five hundred thousand dollars, for all claims arising out of and judgments based upon the same act or acts alleged in a single cause and shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars for any one claimant, and insurance policies purchased pursuant to the provisions of section 105.721 shall be limited to five hundred thousand dollars. Liability or malpractice insurance obtained and maintained in force by or on behalf of any physician, dentist, physician assistant, dental hygienist, or nurse shall not be considered available to pay that portion of a judgment or claim for which the state legal expense fund is liable under this paragraph; or

(e) Any physician, nurse, physician assistant, dental hygienist, or dentist licensed or registered to practice medicine, nursing, or dentistry or to act as a physician assistant or dental hygienist in Missouri under the provisions of chapter 332, RSMo, chapter 334, RSMo, or chapter 335, RSMo, who provides medical, nursing, or dental treatment within the scope of his license or registration to students of a school whether a public, private, or parochial elementary or secondary school, if such physician's treatment is restricted to primary care and preventive health services and if such medical, dental, or nursing services are provided by the physician, dentist, physician assistant, dental hygienist, or nurse without compensation. In the case of any claim or judgment that arises under this paragraph, the aggregate of payments from the state legal expense fund shall be limited to a maximum of five hundred thousand dollars, for all claims arising out of and judgments based upon the same act or acts alleged in a single cause and shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars for any one claimant, and insurance policies purchased pursuant to the provisions of section 105.721 shall be limited to five hundred thousand dollars; or

(4) Staff employed by the juvenile division of any judicial circuit; or community social services center qualified as exempt from federal taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or through any agency of any federal, state, or local government, if such legal practice is provided by the attorney without compensation. In the case of any claim or judgment that arises under this subdivision, the aggregate of payments from the state legal expense fund shall be limited to a maximum of five hundred thousand dollars for all claims arising out of and judgments based upon the same act or acts alleged in a single cause and shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars for any one claimant, and insurance policies purchased pursuant to the provisions of section 105.721 shall be limited to five hundred thousand dollars.

Any claim or judgment arising under paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), or (e) of subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section shall be paid by the state legal expense fund or any policy of insurance procured pursuant to section 105.721, to the extent damages are allowed under sections 538.205 to 538.235, RSMo. Liability or malpractice insurance obtained and maintained in force by any physician, dentist, physician assistant, dental hygienist, or nurse for coverage concerning his or her private practice and assets shall not be considered available under subsection 6 of this section to pay that portion of a judgment or claim for which the state legal expense fund is liable under paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), or (e) of subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section. However, a physician, nurse, dentist, physician assistant, or dental hygienist may purchase liability or malpractice insurance for coverage of liability claims or judgments based upon care rendered under paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) of subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section which exceed the amount of liability coverage provided by the state legal expense fund under those paragraphs. Even if paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), or (e) of subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section is repealed or modified, the state legal expense fund shall be available for damages which occur while the pertinent paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), or (e) of subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section is in effect.

4. The attorney general shall promulgate rules regarding contract procedures and the documentation of legal practice provided under subdivision (5) of subsection 2 of this section. The limitation on payments from the state legal expense fund or any policy of insurance procured pursuant to section 105.721 as provided in subsection 6 of this section shall not apply to any claim or judgment arising under subdivision (5) of subsection 2 of this section. Any claim or judgment arising under subdivision (5) of subsection 2 of this section shall be paid by the state legal expense fund or any policy of insurance procured pursuant to section 105.721 to the extent damages are allowed under sections 538.205 to 538.235, RSMo. Liability or malpractice insurance otherwise obtained and maintained in force shall not be considered available under subsection 6 of this section to pay that portion of a judgment or claim for which the state legal expense fund is liable under subdivision (5) of subsection 2 of this section. However, an attorney may obtain liability or malpractice insurance for coverage of liability claims or judgments based upon legal practice rendered under subdivision (5) of subsection 2 of this section that exceed the amount of liability coverage provided by the state legal expense fund under subdivision (5) of subsection 2 of this section. Even if subdivision (5) of subsection 2 of this section is repealed or amended, the state legal expense fund shall be available for damages that occur while the pertinent subdivision (5) of subsection 2 of this section is in effect.

5. All payments shall be made from the state legal expense fund by the commissioner of administration with the approval of the attorney general. Payment from the state legal expense fund of a claim or final judgment award against a physician, dentist, physician assistant, dental hygienist, or nurse described in paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), or (e) of subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section, or against an attorney in subdivision (5) of subsection 2 of this section, shall only be made for services rendered in accordance with the conditions of such paragraphs.

6. Except as provided in subsection 3 of this section, in the case of any claim or judgment that arises under sections 537.600 and 537.610, RSMo, against the state of Missouri, or an agency of the state, the aggregate of payments from the state legal expense fund and from any policy of insurance procured pursuant to the provisions of section 105.721 shall not exceed the limits of liability as provided in sections 537.600 to 537.610, RSMo. No payment shall be made from the state legal expense fund or any policy of insurance procured with state funds pursuant to section 105.721 unless and until the benefits provided to pay the claim by any other policy of liability insurance have been exhausted.

7. The provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, notwithstanding, any moneys remaining to the credit of the state legal expense fund at the end of an appropriation period shall not be transferred to general revenue.

8. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is promulgated under the authority delegated in sections 105.711 to 105.726 shall become effective only if it has been promulgated pursuant to the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to repeal or affect the validity of any rule filed or adopted prior to August 28, 1999, if it fully complied with the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 1999, shall be invalid and void.”; and
